ESTABLISHED 1833. FORT WAYNE, IND., MONDAY, MAY 1, 1899. PRICE TWO CENTS

A GREETING TO ADMIRAL DEWEY

The President Sends Him a Message.

AN OFFICER MISSING

Captain Abercrombie is a Prisoner.

Admiral Dewey Cables That Bancroft's Men are Prisoners of Rebels.

"New York, May 1, 1899.—Dewey, Manila: On this anniversary of your great victory the people of the United States unite in an expression of affection and gratitude to yourself and the brave officers and men of your fleet, whose brilliant achievement marked an epoch in history and which will live in the annals of the world's heroic deeds.

"William McKinley."

THE BANCROFT'S MEN.

Washington, May 1.—The following cablegram has been received from Admiral Dewey:

"Manila, April 30.—Secretary of Navy, Washington: Apparently reliable information, ten of the Yorktown boat crew, including Gilmore, are prisoners at insurgent headquarters. Am continuing investigation. Dewey."

CAPT. ROCKEFELLER MISSING.

Washington, May 1.—The war department has received no advices from General Otis since Saturday concerning the conditions in the Philippines.

In the two dispatches received today no mention is made of the negotiations with the insurgents, nor of any fighting.

General Otis reports that Captain Rockefeller, of the Ninth infantry, has been missing since the 28th of April. Captain Rockefeller was making some investigations about Caloocan and has not been seen since the date given. Some of his personal papers have been found about two miles from Caloocan.

It is feared that he has been captured by some of the insurgents' bands.

"Manila, May 1.—Adjutant General, Washington: Captain Rockefeller, Ninth infantry, missing since 28th ultimo. On line commanding battalion near Caloocan; visited outposts 9:30 p. m.; not seen since. Diligent search made that night two miles to front; nothing discovered; no enemy in front. Search prosecuted ever since without success. Private papers in his possession found 29th ultimo two and one-half miles to front. Belief lost course and captured. Otis."

Captain Charles Rockefeller entered the army as a private in the Seventh New York, in 1861. He served through the civil war, reaching the rank of first lieutenant of volunteers. He became a second lieutenant in the Ninth infantry in 1867, and has been with that regiment ever since. He has always been known as a good soldier, and was a graduate of the infantry and cavalry school. He was well up in the list of captains and would have received a major's commission in a short time.

ADMIRAL DEWEY TO RETURN.

Washington, May 1. — Admiral Dewey will return to the United States upon the conclusion of hostilities in the Philippines. He has advised the navy department that he does not feel he would be justified in deserting his command while hostilities continue, but he hopes to return immediately after they are concluded.

Admiral Dewey, in a personal letter written to a friend in this city, says he dreads returning to the United States. He has heard of a reception given the fleet upon its return from Santiago, and of the various banquets and receptions which have been given officers participating in the naval victory, and for this reason is dubious about returning.

He says upon his return he wishes to come home and live and without [illegible] and does not want [illegible] reception. He intends upon his return to take a long rest before assuming active duties.

Continuing, the admiral says if his entire squadron could return with him he would be pleased to have a reception in its honor, but personally he is much averse to it.

Admiral Dewey is a member of the Philippine commission appointed by the president, and his presence in Manila will be imperative until matters assume their usual routine. In view of his long service and the arduous duties he has been compelled to perform it is more than possible he will be relieved from serving on the commission, should he so desire.

The admiral wishes it understood he does not care to leave Manila until law and order are restored.

FROM BLUEFIELDS.

The Situation There is Not Satisfactory.

Late Advices Indicate That the State of Affairs Has Not at All Improved.

Washington, May 1.—Advices received here from Bluefields, Nicaragua, indicate that the situation there so far as American interests are concerned is extremely unsatisfactory and discouraging.

It is being impressed upon the officials here that persons high in the Nicaraguan government are pursuing a policy calculated very deliberately to crush the American business interests, now of considerable magnitude in the Mosquito country.

The reports are to the effect that ever since the Clarence rebellion some years ago, the Nicaraguan government has been jealous of the growing importance of the American settlements, and the Reyes rebellion recently seems to have confirmed it in the determination to destroy the American influence in that section. The Nicaraguans hold the American merchants responsible for the Reyes rebellion.

They have consequently determined, according to reports received here, to impose upon these American merchants the entire expense to which the government was put in repressing the rebellion, amounting to about $600,000.

This could not be done directly without a breach of international law, hence the attempt was made to collect a large part of it through a demand upon the merchants for a second payment upon imports paid to the de facto government of Bluefields while Reyes was in possession of the place.

The reports show that this government of Reyes was actually de facto in the full sense of the term.

In proof of this it is shown that Estrada, the Nicaraguan governor of the place, sought and was given refuge in the United States consular agency. Also the dues collected on imports were collected for Reyes by the same treasurer who had held the place for the past three years.

The American interests in Bluefields alone now aggregate fully $2,000,000 in gold, and the state department is determined that they shall be protected against the proposed extortion, so that interesting news is expected at any moment in view of a United States man of war there, the Detroit, to execute the orders of the department.

TRUSTEE'S NEW OFFICE ROOMS.

C. H. Worden, trustee of the defunct Fort Wayne Electric corporation, has secured rooms in the Elektron building and will occupy them pending the settlement of the indebtedness. He has retained C. C. Miller, M. C. Gross and two or three others to assist him. Administrators H. J. Miller and R. S. Taylor may occupy rooms in the Elektron building while settling the affairs of the estate of the late R. T. McDonald.

CHICAGO DOLLAR DINNER.

Chicago, May 1.—The committee of arrangements having in charge the dollar banquet, similar to the affair recently given in New York, have decided to hold it on May 20, under the auspices of the Carter Harrison Unionist league, a semi-political organization formed for the purpose of aiding Mayor Harrison in his recent campaign. It is understood that Col. William Jennings Bryan and Mayor Carter H. Harrison have already accepted invitations to speak.

STRIKE ABOUT OVER.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 1.—Over 500 grain shovellers are at work on the docks today. All of them belong to old union No. 51. The police are on hand in large force, but the seceders are making no attempt to interfere with the workers.

DEWEY DAY IS CELEBRATED

First Anniversary of Manila Fight

WIDELY OBSERVED.

A Big Naval Pageant in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 1.—Dewey day was celebrated in this city with imposing pomp and ceremony. Governor Stone, by proclamation, made the occasion a holiday in this state on the recommendation of the legislature. He is not vested with the power to make the event continuous, so greater efforts were extended to render the exercises the more auspicious. Public institutions were open for business as usual.

The most important event was the naval parade on the Delaware river, which was reviewed by naval and civic dignitaries. The harbor presented a beautiful spectacle, innumerable flags and red, white and blue bunting entwined with the city colors, blue and gold, being displayed in profusion on hundreds of vessels. The buildings along the river front and throughout the city were gaily decorated.

The cruiser Raleigh was the chief object of interest. The war ship was anchored at the extreme turning point of the line of the naval parade. Next to her was the revenue cutter Algonquin and then came all the available craft now assembled at League Island.

All the vessels to participate in the pageant started at a signal from the navy yard, from a point a short distance below League Island.

The parade proceeded up the east side of the river, passing the Raleigh, Captain Coghlan reviewing the procession from the bridge of the war ship. As the head of the procession reached the Raleigh, the gallant little cruiser fired the national salute, and then until the last vessel in the parade had repassed her on the west side of the river the salutes from the Raleigh were almost continuous.

The Russian naval officers who are here superintending the construction of the new Russian war ships at Cramps', participated in the ceremonies, reviewing the parade with Captain Coghlan. Throughout the state local celebrations are being held in honor of the hero of Manila bay.

OBSERVED IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 1.—The celebration of Dewey day in Chicago was mostly of an indoor character. In a majority of the schools an hour was set aside for appropriate exercises in honor of the first anniversary of the battle of Manila.

This evening numerous banquets and entertainments will be given, including an "expansion" dinner at the Quadrangle club. The celebration will be brought to a close with the rendition of the "Manila Te Deum" at the auditorium theatre to-night, under the auspices of several society women. Three hundred voices will compose the chorus. The proceeds of the entertainment will be donated to the Chicago maternity hospital and training school for nurses.

PITTSBURG CELEBRATES.

Pittsburg, May 1.—Dewey day is being celebrated by special exercises in the schools and by a reception to the three members of the Raleigh crew who are here to attend the mass meeting scheduled for to-night at Old City Hall. Extensive preparations have been made for this meeting and a big time is expected. The city is gaily decorated in honor of Dewey.

NEW YORK OBSERVES THE DAY

New York, May 1.—Dewey day was celebrated in the public schools in this city by special exercises in commemoration of the victory at Manila and by the flying of flags on all school buildings.

DEWEY DAY IN BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Dewey day was celebrated here today by a display of flags over the national, state and city buildings and prominent business houses, and al[illegible] receptions held by patriotic [illegible] In many of the public schools there were appropriate exercises.

A CANNON EXPLODES.

Mauch Chunk, Pa., May 1.—By the premature discharge of a cannon used in the celebration of Dewey day, three persons were badly injured. They were: Unknown boy, badly burned and cut; Jery Conway, three fingers blown off, and James McGee, arm torn off. McGee displayed remarkable nerve. He picked up his arm and carried it to a railroad hospital cat. The cannon was heavily loaded with powder and stones.

FOR CONCORDIA COLLEGE.

Concordia college, of this city, was substantially remembered by general conference of the German Evangelical Lutheran synod in session at St. Louis. Among the educational appropriations made by the synod was one of $7,600 the institution in this city.

TALE OF SUFFERING.

Copper River Miners Return to United States.

Many Are Afflicted With Scurvy and Frost Bites--Many Died in Gold Country.

Seattle, Wash., May 1.—Sixty prospectors arrived here to-day from Copper River, Alaska, on the steamer Excelsior. They brought with them a repetition of the stories of privations and death and many bore evidence on their bodies of the ravages of scurvy and frost. A man named Young hobbled off the vessel on the stumps of two legs. Another named Alex Powell had but one foot.

F. C. Goodwin, of Oakland, Cal., whose legs are black with scurvy and whose knees are bruised by contact with the ice, tells an interesting story of his experiences which were similar to that of others.

While encamped in the interior, his partner, Wesley Schédicker, of Grand Ridge, Ill., fell sick with scurvy and soon became unable to travel. Goodwin strapped him on a sled and started to the coast. After four days of almost herculean labor, he arrived at the mouth of the Chitna river, but his partner was frozen stark and stiff to the sled. He buried him in the snow. Continuing his journey to the coast he came across a tent in which there were two men sick with scurvy. They were Dixon Hutton, of Memphis, Tenn., and T. B. Rawlings, of Little Rock, Ark.

Another man happened along at the same time and he and Goodwin put Rawlings and Hutton on sleds and dragged them to the coast. Others are reported sick, but their names are lacking.

It was rumored that a party of prospectors was coming out from the interior and it was feared they might have been caught in the slide.

The government expedition under Captain Abercrombie were arranging to begin the construction of a road into the interior when the Excelsior left. Relief parties with provisions and anti-scorbutics had been sent into the interior.

REPORT FROM ABERCROMBIE.

Washington, May 1.—Acting Secretary Meiklejohn has received a report from Captain Ambercrombie, who is commanding the expedition investigating the Copper river route to the Yukon country. The report comes through Captain Coomson, quartermaster at Seattle, Wash., who says that the following message was handed to him by the purser of the steamer Excelsior, which arrived yesterday from Valdez, Alaska:

"My expedition disembarked today, April 23rd. Hospital organized for the care of destitute miners, who are now coming out of the interior by the route you contemplate opening as a military road. While the conditions are distressing so far as the destitute are concerned, the worst is over. A full report follows.

"Abrecrombie, Commanding."

DISCUSSED RACIAL TROUBLES.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 1.—Rev. H. J. Calis preached last night at the Zion A. M. E. church, colored, on the racial troubles of the south. He said that the white women of the south had not protected their own chastity.

He made the plea for the organization of the colored men; said that 2,50,000 were able to carry arms and predicted that if the murders of colored men in the south did not cease there would be a conflict between the black and white men of the south. He said that his brethren in the south looked to the north for salva-

SOME ADVICE FROM GERMANY

Would Have War Stop in Philippines.

OUR POWER SHOWN

Say Germany's Interests Are Suffering--Claims for Damages at Iloilo.

Berlin, May 1.—The newspapers of Germany, commenting upon the latest news from the Philippine islands, express the hope that the United States will now end the hostilities in the far east.

The Frankfurter Zeitung says:

"We trust that President McKinley and his advisors will not be misled by jingo shoutings, but that they will listen to the voice of the Filipinos as expressed through their leaders, and to the voice of the American nation as expressed by the serious press and the declarations of sober-minded politicians. We have never doubted the ability of the Americans to enforce their will in the Philippines, but the moment has come to make good the wrong done and bring their material interests in accord with the dictates of justice."

The Vossche Zeitung, basing its comment upon private advices from the Philippines, says that the continuance of the war is inflicting grave injury upon German commercial interests, and details numerous cases in support of this assertion.

The journal last quoted says that the German consul at Iloilo made a list of everything belonging to German citizens there that was destroyed or injured in the bombardment, and submitted it to Maj. Gen. E. S. Otis. In reply the consul has received from General Otis the statement that the United States will not pay the damages claimed, as Iloilo at the time of the bombardment was still in possession of the Spaniards.

Other German merchants of Iloilo who made representations of a like character to General Otis received similar replies.

The Vossiche Zeitung adds that these and many more claims will probably lead to protracted diplomatic negotiations at Washington.

VISITS NAVY YARD.

The President Received by Admiral Philip.

The National Salute and a Brilliant Array of Officers and Marines Greeted Him.

New York, May 1.—President and Mrs. McKinley breakfasted this morning at the Hotel Manhattan. After breakfast the president received a number of callers, among them Gen. Grenville M. Dodge. At 9:45 o'clock the president, Abner McKinley and Assistant Secretary Cortelyou entered a carriage and drove to the foot of East Twenty-third street, where they boarded a government tug and went to the navy yard. Mrs. McKinley remained at the hotel. Later in the day she and Mrs. Abner McKinley did some shopping.

The presidential party, which included General Dodge, W. W. Heaton, Surgeon Rixey, of the United States navy, and Col. W. C. Brown, were received on board the government tug Nina by Commander J. D. J. Kelley, U. S. N., who was delegated to escort them to the navy yard by Rear Admiral J. W. Philip. The tug reached the yard at 10:40 o'clock and the visitors landed at the foot of Main street. As the Nina turned into the Wallabout basin the guns on board the Vermont belched forth a salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the president.

Rear Admiral Philip, with Captains Miller, Ide, Frahhanoldt and Arnold, greeted the president and his escort when they came ashore. President McKinley and the commandant then led the others up the yard to the lyceum building, in front of which all the officers on duty at the yard were lined up in special full dress. One hundred marines, in command of Col. R. W. Huntington and Captains W. C. Neville and W. J. McKelvey, faced the building. As the president approached the marine band played "Hail to the Chief," and while the marines presentd arms the officers and spectators doffed their hats.

Admiral Philip int[illegible] of the officers to the president, who shook hands with every one of them. After this the party was escorted through the stores and factories and then visited the Yosemite and Glacier, which they inspected.

After the inspection they were invited to luncheon at the commandant's residence. After luncheon the president and the other visitors returned to the city on board the Nina and as the vessel swung into the East river another salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the Vermont, on which vessel the president's flag was flying.

HEAD CRUSHED.

George W. Mason Falls Under a Train.

G. W. Mason, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania construction train, was instantly killed at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the east yards.

He attempted to climb upon the train while it was in motion and losing his hold fell between two flat cars and his head was squashed to a pulp by the wheels which passed over it.

The unfortunate man was married and lived with his wife at 90 Fourth street. He had no children. His age was 28 years. He had been in the employ of the company for about a year.

He was brought to the Pennsylvania depot on the train and was removed thence to Pelzer's morgue.

The deceased was a brother-in-law of William E. Angevine, the real estate agent in the Arcade.

HOTEL THIEVES.

Two Tricks Turned Here Last Saturday--Police Have a Trial.

Saturday evening when William Goers returned to his room at the Webber hotel after his day's work he found that his room had been entered and $100 in cash which was in a cigar box in a trunk had been stolen. His room was on the third floor and the theft is believed to have been the work of the same sneak thief who stole the suit of clothes from the Custer house. The police are investigating, but have no clue.

Superintendent Gorsline's investigation developes that Saturday morning two strangers were taken to the Custer house by Merchant Policeman Kiel. They left the hotel without being seen at 9 o'clock, and it was only shortly after that that two men answering the same description called at the Webber house and asked for a room, saying they had traveled all night. At 11 o'clock the men came down stairs and complained that they could not sleep on account of the heat. The asked when dinner would be ready, were answered and left the place, going west on Grand stret. Superintendent Gorsline has telephoned a description to Huntington, Peru, Lafayette and other cities west.

SPAIN IS PAID.

Drafts for $20,000,000 are Transferred.

French Ambassador Receives the Sum at the State Department for Madrid Government.

Washington, May 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Vanderlip this morning handed to Secretary Hay the drafts for $20,000,000 to be turned over to the Spanish government through Ambassador Cambon, according to the terms of the Spanish treaty.

The state department at once sent word to the French ambassador that the warrants were in hand and would be turned over to him at any time. Shortly before 11 o'clock M. Cambon strolled over to the state department.

He was alone and no extra precaution was taken to guard the transfer of such a large amount. Secretary Hay received the ambassador in the diplomatic room, where the transfer took place with little formality.

The ambassador handed Secretary Hay a formal receipt, which had already been prepared.

WHITE-WINGED PEACE BROODS

Britain and Russia Are in Amity.

AGREE AS TO CHINA

Possibility of War is Lessened.

Abandonment of Open Door Policy Thought to be Harmful to America.

Washington, May 1.—Lord Salisbury's speech last evening in reference to the agreement reached by Great Britain and Russia as to China was read with the greatest interest here.

The prevailing sentiment is one of relief that by this agreement has been removed an element that threatened to involve in hostilities two great nations with which the United States was desirous to live on the most friendly terms. There is some curiosity to know just how the commercial interests of the United States are likely to be affected by this important arrangement. It may be stated that the highest official authority here does not accept the view set out in some of the British newspapers that the United States has lost its chance in China; that the door is shut against us, and that we have deserved this exclusion by failing to substantially assist England in securing the open door policy as to all China.

It is said that so far as the English sphere in China is concerned, the United States will have free entry commercially, while assurances have been secured from Russia that United States commerce will be treated on terms of equality with Russian commerce in any portion of China that may come under her influence.

WAGES ARE RAISED.

Cleveland, O., May 1.—It is estimated that over 3,500 mechanics of this city will receive increased wages dating from to-day. Seven hundred machine molders went to their work this morning with an advance of 10 per cent. and the stove plate molders receive a like advance. The carpenters get two and one-half cents more an hour, making a total hour scale of twenty-seven and one-half cents, and are also benefited by a universal eight hour run. The union plumbers start the month with a straight $3 a day scale, an advance of 25 cents a day. The structural iron workers get a 5 per cent. advance and the brick layers work for 50 cents an hour instead of 45 cents per hour as heretofore. The plasterers receive a slight increase and the lathers' union members receive $2.50 per day instead of $2.

BUYS ART FOR HIS PALACE.

Paris, May 1.—Senator W. A. Clark, the copper king of Montana, who bought Fortuny's "Choice of a Model" in New York, is buying up all the old furniture and works of the great painters that he can obtain here. The furniture and pictures are intended for his contemplated palace on Fifth avenue, New York. The furniture belongs to the periods of Louis Quatorze, Louis Quinze, Louis Seize, and the empire. He has paid $20,000 for a Turner picture and has also bought several paintings by Diaz and Fortuny. The famous artist, Bonnat, is now painting a life-size portrait of Senator Clark. The senator, in speaking of his art purchases today, said: "I mean to have the best collection of pictures in the United States and to build the finest residence in New York. Ex-Secretary Whitney's house will be poor in comparison."

BILL KUEHNE WON THE GAME

His Single in the Ninth Settled It.

A SLUGGING MATCH

Between Fort Wayne and Toledo.

Glasscock Sent Kuehne to Bat in Place of Bergen After Two Men Were Out--Notes.

That was a real mean trick that Bill Kuehne worked on Charley Strobel's Mud Hens at Toledo yesterday afternoon. And Manager Jack Glasscock was a party to the trick, too.

The first game of the season was about over. It was the ninth inning and the Mud Hens were in the lead The first half was over and Fort Wayne must get two runs to win. Glasscock led off with a single and three minutes later was doubled up with Norcom on the "Indian's" hard drive at Griffin, which the former Fort Wayneite handled cleanly and quickly, although earlier in the game he had juggled the sphere twice With two out and Rapp at the bat, the chances were indeed blue for the Hoosiers and then 300 rooters, who had journeyed almost one hundred miles to see them take a fall out of Charley Strobel's Mud Hens. Cates, who was twirling for Toledo, was rattled, victory was so close, and sent Rapp to base on four wide balls "Holly" came up with a determination to line 'er out and send in Rapp with the tying run. But Cates wouldn't have it that way and the little shortstop also walked to second. It was Bergen's time at bat, but Manager Glasscock believed he had done enough good work behind the bat, and realizing that Bill Kuehne, who had been taking tickets at the 25-cent gate, knew a thing or two about hitting the ball, called on the big infielder to bat in the backstop's place. Bill went to the plate and Cates floated a pretty one over "One strike," shouted the umpire. Another one of Cates' easy shoots came marching up to the plate with a tempting smile which seemed to say, "You can't hit me." Bill accepted the challenge and Mr. Sphere went sailing out into Mr. Gilks' territory for a pretty single and Rapp and Hollingsworth raced around the bases. Gilks was nervous and allowed the ball to get past him and when he did get it threw to third base and before the ball could be sent to the Toledo catcher Hollingsworth had followed Rapp over the plate with the winning run and several hundred Fort Wayne rooters were over the front of the grand stand cheering and shaking the Hoosier players like mad And the big Toledo crowd was very much crestfallen

The game was one of that character that to write all about it would occupy several columns of space. The Toledo "fans" had heard of the prowess of Jack Glasscock's rejuvenated Hoosiers and there were almost 3,000 people in the grounds to see the two clubs contest in the first championship game of the season. And they were repaid by seeing one of the most exciting games that was ever played on any diamond Brodie was in the points and Bergen instead of Zimram was sent in to catch him "Smoke" and his new battery partner worked well the first two innings and the Toledos couldn't get a score, while the Fort Waynes had taken advantage of some very rank errors and several clean hits to send six runs trickling over the home plate The Mud Hens scored one in the third It was in the fourth that the first real damage was done Brodie was floating the balls up and one man was out when Tim Flood made an error Billy Smith came to the bat and sent a lone one over the fence for a home run "Holly" fumbled McDonough's hard one to short and then Arthur followed with the second home run hit of the inning, scoring two more runs. Whissen was sent to the rubber at this point to relieve Brodie Cates followed with a three-bagger and scored before the inning ended. Then the Toledo "fans" went crazy. The Mud Hens scored one run in each of the next three innings, one of them a long home run into Casino park by Elve Beck. In Fort Wayne's half of the seventh the score was tied, one of the three runs being a homer by Belden over Bob Gilks' head into the Casino. Fort Wayne scored a run in the eighth and took the lead. In the first half of the ninth, with a man on base, Billy Smith sent another home run hit into the Casino and the score was 11 to 10 against the Hoosiers. Then followed the sensational bit of playing by the Fort Waynes chronicled in the first paragraph of this article. Score:

BASE BALL NOTES.

George Reiman will pitch today.

There were 2,550 paid admissions at the Toledo game yesterday.

The championship season opens in Fort Wayne next Thursday when Grand Rapids comes for two games.

The Kokomos beat Dayton Saturday by a score of 3 to 2. Roach and "Kid"Fear formed the Kokomo battery

Ira Belden and Tim Flood lambasted the ball very hard yesterday, and it was their batting which made it possible for the Fort Waynes to win.

There were 27,494 people at the Chicago-St. Louis ball game in the Windy City yesterday. Between 7,000 and 10,000 people were turned away This is the largest crowd that ever attended a ball game.

Buffalo won four consecutive games from Indianapolis and now leads the Western league in the race for the pennant. The game yesterday was won in the ninth inning. Not a Bison crossed the rubber until the ninth when, with the score 3 to 0 in favor of Indianapolis, Scott weakened and Manager Nash's alleged weaklings scored seven times.

Manager Glascock sent Carney to the plate in the seventh to bat for Rapp, but Captain Gilks entered a protest and threatened to stop the game if the twirler was not withdrawn. Manager Strobel received a telegram from President Power authorizing him not to play the game if an attempt was made to play Carney. The management ordered Carney to return to Fort Wayne last evening, but he failed to come.

A special this morning says that Manager Strobel will protest yesterday's game because Umpire Grim refused to allow Smith a home run on a hit which struck the limbs of a tree hanging over the Casino fence, the ball falling inside the park. Letcher fielded the ball and held Smith at second base. The dispatch also says Kuehne was not in uniform when he made the hit that scored the winning run. Kuehne was in uniform and although the uniform was not a new one, it was gray and "conformed to the suits worn by his team mates." Smith scored on the hit which it is asserted Strobel will protest and it resulted the same as a run anyhow. Furthermore the ball never went over the fence, but struck the limbs which hung above the fence. Charley Strobel has too much base ball sense to protest a game on such flimsy pretexts.

The Shamrocks went to Findlay Saturday and beat the Findlay semi-professional team by a score of 9 to 2. Wayne and O'Meara were in the points for Fort Wayne. Sunday the Shamrocks were beaten by a score of 10 to 2. Robbins and O'Meara were in the points for the Fort Waynes. O'Meara made three two-baggers in the first game.

SUNDAY BASE BALL

Vigorously Denounced by Rev. L. L. Henson Last Evening.

As a prelude to the regular services at the Baptist Tabernacle last evening, the pastor, Rev. Henson, paid his respects to Sunday base ball in scathing terms. He took a pronounced stand against the Sunday games, and did not mince words in defining his position. He declared himself unalterably opposed to Sunday base ball, both from a moral standpoint and because it is a violation of the laws of the state and quoted the section of the Indiana statute which makes the playing of this game and similar games on Sunday a misdemeanor. He stated that the local management had openly advertised to break this law by playing the game on Sunday, and thought that were some other persons to advertise an intention of breaking some other law it would not be permitted. He asked that no exception be made in the base ball matter, and as a citizen of Fort Wayne Rev. Henson publicly called upon the officers to enforce the law against Sunday base ball.

ALMOST A MILLION.

More Than 1,500 Exemption Affidavits Filed.

This Means More Than $900,000 Taken From the Tax Duplicate -Court News.

County Auditor William Meyer and his deputies have completed the taking of affidavits of mortgage indebtedness. The law provides that all these affidavits must be made before the first day of May and the auditor and his deputies worked until late Saturday evening taking care of applicants. At one time Saturday there were seven clerks filling blanks for affidavits.

Mr. Meyer tells THE SENTINEL that during the month of April applications for about 1,500 exemptions had been made and there are hundreds of persons who have failed to take advantage of the law, not because they were unwilling to do so, but for the reason that the law is misunderstood. There have been two or three scores of applications at the auditor's office today, but it is now too late to secure exemption, as the law states positively that the affidavits must be made before May.

The 1,500 exemptions taken means that the valuation of personal property will be decreased in this manner alone almost $1,000,000. Nine-tenths of the exemptions were for the full amount, $700, although there were a few smaller ones. The average, however, is not less than $600 each. Many of the mortgages were for thousands of dollars and in some instances had never been listed for taxation. Now the assessor will be able to place them on the duplicate. A big per cent of the loans were made in foreign companies and to individuals outside of Indiana. These cannot be assessed as the law does not provide for the assessing of property outside the state. There are some mortgages held in Indiana cities other than Fort Wayne. These will be reported to the county officers where held and placed on the docket in that county. Altogether Allen county will have a smaller assessment on personal property than heretofore.

SCHELL IS AT HOME.

Late Saturday afternoon Sheriff Melching completed arrangements with the friends of J. F. Schell for his removal from the county jail and he was taken to his residence in Lakeside, where he lies now dangerously ill. His condition is very much weaker and many of his friends and the officers believe there is much doubt as to his recovery. Last evening he was reported much weaker than at any time since his arrest. The sheriff finds it unnecessary to keep an officer at the house, although Mr. Schell is kept under surveillance all the time by some person representing the sheriff. Mrs. Schell still attends her husband, and on leaving the jail thanked Mr. Melching for his kindnesses while she was there attending him.

HE IS BETTER.

Attorney E V. Harris this afternoon told THE SENTINEL that Mr. Schell was much better today. He has expressed a wish to get well and remain in Fort Wayne and face the charges that have been made against him in the indictments.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

In the circuit court this morning T. J. Logan was admitted to practice at the Allen county bar by Judge O'Rourke. The examiners were Judge John Morris, Judge Allen Zollars and William P. Breen. Mr. Logan is a thorough student of the law, his work as court reporter for a number of years having given him an insight into law that could not have been so thoroughly obtained in any other manner. Mr. Logan is certain to make a successful practitioner.

Judge O'Rourke and a jury are today hearing the evidence in the case of the Gutta Percha Rubber Co. vs. P. E. Cox. This is a suit on account, Mr. Cox contending that he did not get value received in the goods delivered.

The divorce proceedings commenced by Caroline Radtke against Herman Radtke have been dismissed by agreement.

Edith Laemnele has commenced suit for slander against Nancy Mayhew. She demands $2,000 damages. The complaint alleges that defendant made aspersions on the character of plaintiff.

SLIGHT GAIN.

Small Increase in Fort Wayne's School Population.

Enumeration Was Completed Saturday and Reports are Being Made Up Today--Approximate Figures.

The enumeration of children of school age in the city of Fort Wayne was completed Saturday evening, and to-day the reports are being tabulated and filed with the city superintendent of schools. No definite figures are yet obtainable, but Superintendent Study told The Sentinel this afternoon that the census would show that there are within the city limits approximately 13,000 persons of school age—that is, between the ages of 6 and 21 years. Last year within the same territory there were 12,811, and from reports already received it has been computed that there is a gain of 266 for the year. These figures are subject to revision, and the exact number can not be given until the official tabulation is completed. There has undoubtedly been a slight gain, though on the face of the completed returns for the year an apparent loss may be shown. This is due to the fact that last year there were 547 pupils transferred from country districts to the city schools, and under the provisions of the new law these transfers will not appear in the enumeration of this year.

The schools will close on June 16 and the High school commencement will be held a few days before that date. There will be about thirty pupils in the graduating class and the superintendent stated that at present the indications are that the percentages of the graduates will be good.

LASTING TEETH.

Care is the only factor that Nature failed to provide to make teeth last for a life time She depended upon the owners of teeth for that—and it's a trust that is too often neglected.

Modern dental science has seconded Nature's claim to care by wonderful advances to making tooth care easy and effective

But it is still your trust—is still necessary—and is still more than ever effective in helping your teeth to do what Nature intended they should last as long as you'll have need for teeth.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple but safe and Effectual Cure for It

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases causing a pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played-out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surface of the stomach. To secure prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of diastase, aseptic, pepsin, a little nux, golden seal and fruit acids These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite will follow them regular use after meals

Mr N J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill, says "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have flesh appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals

A LITERARY worker is compiling a dictionary of American college slang, and it will give also, of course, the college yells. If this work falls into the hands of the natives of our newly acquired islands, and they mistake it for the English language, some interesting results may be expected.

A TELEGRAM from New York to Manila is repeated seventeen times in transmission. The intermediate stages are to Newfoundland, Ireland, London, Penzance, Lisbon, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Penang, Singapore, Saigon and Hong Kong. The process will be quite different when a Pacific cable connects San Francisco with Honolulu and Manila.

SOME of the clergymen of Toledo are advocating municipal ownership of the saloons and Mayor Jones is quoted as saying that he inclines to a similar policy. He says: "It is ahead of the prohibition or any similar plan, so far as I have been able to form an opinion. I have not had the time to think it over that I would like. It seems to me that the root of the evil is the profit. No man would start a saloon if it were not for the profit attached."

AN American military officer at Manila writes that the Filipinos have had available three times as many soldiers as the Americans, but have no organizing faculty. They "seem able only to put arms in the hands of thousands of men, and then let them fight as individuals and separate bodies as circumstances dictate. Their instinct and training are to fight always from cover, and this utterly unfits them for the offensive." The operations of the last three months prove the truth of the opinion.

ELECTRICITY has been practically applied on a farm near St. Johnsville, N. Y. There are two falls on the land, and one of sixty feet is used to generate a current of 270 horse-power. Wires run from the power house to the dwelling, barn and other buildings, giving all the light, heat and motor energy desired. Separate motors operate a hay-cutter, threshing machine and circular saw. The cooking is done by electricity, and dairy operations performed by the same means. At night the arc light illuminates the premises around the house. A fourth of the power is sold to two knitting factories in the neighborhood, and this nearly meets the running expenses. The cost of the plant was $5,000, but this can be greatly cut down when electrical farm machinery is reduced to a system.

THIS is May day. More conspicuously, however, it is Dewey day. It is the anniversary of Admiral George Dewey's marvelous victory in Manila bay when with his stout ships and his gallant crews it took him but a few hours to smash Montejo's fleet, crush Spain's power in the Pacific, open the way for the extinction of her sovereignty over islands that had been hers for centuries and start the United States on a career as a world power. Dewey's fight at Manila was the first real engagement of the war as it was also the greatest and the most spectacular. A vast deal of history has been made since that day one year ago. Spain has been whipped, driven from the Philippines, from Cuba and Porto Rico. Peace with that monarchy has been concluded and the last act in the brief but exciting drama has been played. From war with Spain we were forced into war with the Filipinos under Aguinaldo and that trouble is nearing its end. Of Dewey himself it seems superfluous to say anything. He is in every American's heart and his name on every American's lips. He is one of the republic's greatest heroes and easily the biggest man who has come out of the war with Spain. No honor his countrymen can bestow upon him will be denied or withheld. He has only to take what would so heartily be offered him.

IN Chicago, Sunday, an anti-expansion meeting was held and some very learned and very distinguished men were the speakers. The question of the war in the Philippines and the policy of territorial expansion was discussed from many points of view and denounced in many sorts of ways. It is difficult to understand just what these men would have our government do. It is impossible for the United States to withdraw from the islands. In many ways the Filipinos have proved their incapacity and unfitness for self government. Their own welfare demands the presence of a strong, capable governing power in the islands. Such a power is there now. With their ancient tribal feuds allowed full sway it would not be a month after the withdrawal of this government's authority until the natives would be slaughtering each other. Bloodshed, rapine and anarchy would reign most hideously. There is but one logical course for this government and that is being pursued. The rebellion must be crushed, order must be restored. Some guarantee must be established for the security of property and the safety of life in the islands. Then may wisely begin the schooling of the Filipinos in civic government. The process will be slow. All the evils that centuries of Spanish brutality and corruption in government have taught them must be unlearned. They must be brought to appreciate that the United States will deal wisely, leniently and generously with them. Once the insurgents lay down their arms, disband their armies and seek to bring prosperity back to their islands they will have no cause to complain of the part the United States has played in their affairs. Justice and civilization impose on the United States the duty of bringing out of centuries of chaos a reign of enlightenment and progress. The exigencies of war have placed the burden of the Philippines on this nation and high is the duty to make the islands and their strange and turbulent people real factors in the processes of world-civilization.

WHY HE IS "FIGHTING BOB."

(New Orleans Times-Democrat.)

"There is some misaprehension," said a visitor from Washington, "as to the maner in which 'Fighting Bob' Evans, of the Iowa, got his soubriequet. It was coined in the Annapolis school days from a peculiar incident. When young Bob started for the academy his mother, who was very devout, gave him a small framed copy of the Lord's prayer and told him to hang it over his bed. So no sooner was he given a room than he drove a nail in the wall with a shoe heel and followed orders to the letter. Now, as you may know, the rules at Annapolis are very strict in regard to room decorations, and nothing is allowed but the regulation kit—ion bed, washstand and a few other necessary articles. Consequently when the petty inspecting officer came around he promptly ordered Bob to take down the prayer. 'I won't do it,' said Bob, and the inspector, aghast, sent for the officer of the day. That dignitary arived, red with indignation. 'Yank it down, orderly!' he roared at his assistant, but young Evans, springing to his feet, struck a pugilistic atitude before the offending tablet and swore he would smash the face of the first man who touched it. The incident was so utterly unprecedented that the officer of the day concluded to refer the whole mater to the commandant, who in turn wrote to the secretary of the navy. Meanwhile Bob had written home, and his straight-laced old parents were filled with wrath and horror. Take down the Lord's prayer! Never! They spread the news, and the little town held an indignation meeting, forwarding a set of sultry resolutions to the president himself. The result of it was that a special order was issued permitting the prayer to remain and the plucky cadet got the honorary title of 'Fighting Bob.' The title stuck, and so did the prayer. I saw it only the other day in Evans' old quarters—room 81, corridor C."

A TRYING MOMENT.

(Washington Star.)

People are telling a most remarkable story about a famous, but somewhat eccentric woman, who is just now visiting the capital. She was invited to a luncheon a week or two ago and she accepted the invitation. Several women well worth knowing were asked to meet her. When they all came to the table the famous guest asked for a finger bowl. The maid, too well trained to show surprise at anything, brought a bowl half filled with water. The famous woman drew a small botle from her pocket and emptied its contents into the water. Then calmly she proceeded to lave her spoon and fork in the liquid, and wiped them on the damask napkin, explaining the while that for her health's sake she made it a rule never to touch her lips with silver that had not been properly sterilized. The bottle contained antiseptic of some kind—I've forgotten the name of it. The best part of the story, to my way of thinking, is what the hostess did. She did not look upon the proceeding as any reflection on her housekeeping methods. She did not stare haughtily. She simply smiled into the agonized eyes of the woman who had brought the famous guest, and said:

"What a very excellent idea."

WIFE BEATS HER HUSBAND.

In his report for the month of April Humane Officer Schlaudroff mentions one case in which the usual order is reversed and a wife is found beating her husband. The other cases investigated for the month are summarized as follows:

Children—Abandoned or neglected, 15; beaten or abused, 9; destitute families, 8; number of children in destitute families, 13; homeless, 1; having improper homes, 24; incorrigible, 2; imbecile, 1.

Animals—Beating or whipping, 1; overdriving or overworking, 3; driven when galled or lame, 1; deprived of necessary food or shelter, 16; driven when diseased, 1; feeding decayed food, 14; cases reported at office, 19; not substantiated, 3; warned, 26; prosecuted, 1; convicted, 1; sentence suspended, 1; animals taken from work, 1.

HOMESTEAD SOLD.

A deal was closed Saturday evening by which Jeremiah B. Downing becomes the owner of the Foellinger suburban homestead, on Fairfield avenue. The property includes about ten acres of land and the price paid was $12,000. The transaction was made through the Curdes agency, and by its terms Louis Foellinger takes the Downing residence on Butler street.

COUNCIL DISTRICTS.

Now that the statutes of 1899 are distributed it will be only a few days until every law passed by the last general assembly will be effective. One of these laws was the county reform bill, which provides for the appointment of seven county councilmen in each county in the state. The counties must be divided into four districts and one each of the councilmen come from these districts, the other three being selected from the county at large. The county commissioners have divided Allen county as follows:

First district—Wayne township and the city of Fort Wayne.

At the next general election these officers, who receive $20 a year, will be elected, but in the meantime Judge O'Rourke will appoint three men to serve until the election. It is understood that there will be a minority representation on the board appointed by Judge O'Rourke. Judge O'Rourke also has the appointment of the five councilmen for each township in Allen county.

JEPHTHAH'S DAUGHTER.

Sermon at Christ's Lutheran Church by Rev. Motschman.

Last night at Christ's Lutheran church Rev. L. J. Motschman preached another sermon in the "Women's Series," taking as his subject "Jephthah's Daughter; the Consecrated Young Womn."

It was a scholarly presentation of this famous story. It is a story much discused by writers and biblical scholars, volumes having been writen upon it. Infidels have always regarded this acount and event a veritable Gibralter of attack against Christianity. If such an event in the career of one of God's servants could be sanctioned by God, then they say Christianity is stigmatized.

The usual interpretation of this story is wrong. A careful study of the original Hebrew text, and law, and of the circumstances will reveal the fact that Jephthah's daughter was not offered as a burnt sacrifice, but was devoted to a life of service in the temple. There she lived a maiden life and was entirely and wholly consecrated unto the Lord and His service. Jephthah was rash in making the vow he did. Such a rash vow is at no time jutifiable. A promise made to do something wrong should never be kept. The evil of promising to do something wrong cannot be covered up by doing that wrong. An evil vow should be broken. Vows should be sacred and made as unto God. The daughter's example in honoring the vow of her father is a great example of obedience and honor to parents. Children in the church should at the confirmation service, and by their lives thereafter, honor the vows their parents made at their baptism.

The next sermon in this series will be given next Sunday evening, wth the subject, "The Witch of Endor; a Ghost Story." This will be the last of the Old Testament characters discussed in this series.

CHILD DRINKS POISON.

A there-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Neher had a narow escape from being poisoned yesterday by drinking a washing compound composed of lye and ammonia. A sister of Mrs. Neher had been scrubbing the floor and had left a bottle containing the fluid on a chair near her. The little one with childish curiosity seized the bottle and took several mouthfuls. His cries brought the other members of the house who, upon discovering what had been done, immediately summoned Dr. E. J. Miller. An examination showed that the child's mouth had been severely burned and for a time it was feared that some of the liquid might have entered the stomach. He is, however, progressing toward recovery, and no serious results are feared.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Arthur Hiser, a farmer residing seven miles south of the city on the Bluffton road, was badly shaken up and bruised on Saturday afternoon as a result of a collision with a Hanna street car. He was turning the corner at Calhoun and Superior streets when the car came up behind his team and frightened them. They shied into a telegraph post and backed the vehicle in front of the car which was coming at a good speed. The car struck the wagon and smashed it to pieces, throwing Mr. Hiser violently to the ground where he lay unconscious for some time. He was cut about the face and had his right leg badly crushed, and was at once removed to his home. One of the horses had its leg broken and was shot.

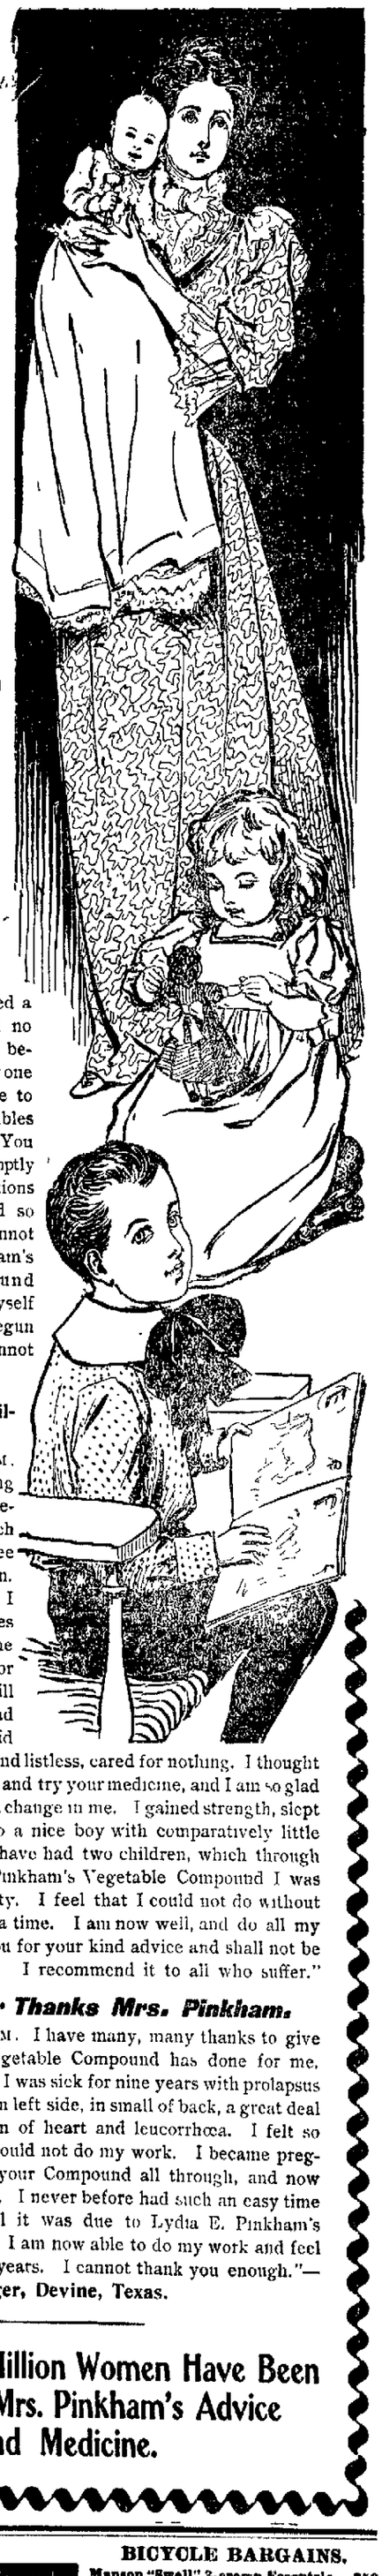
Maternity

If every expectant mother would put herself under Mrs. Pinkham's care and follow her advice, which costs nothing, the experience of maternity would be approached without peril and passed with the least possible pain.

Mrs. Perley Moulton, Thetford, Vt., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine. I took several bottles of it before the birth of my baby and got along nicely. I had no after-pains and am now strong and enjoying good health. Baby is also fat and healthy."



Mrs. Chas. Gerbig, 304 S. Monroe St., Baltimore, Md., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM. Before taking your Vegetable Compound I was unable to become pregnant; but since I have used it my health is much improved, and I have a big baby boy, the joy and pride of our home."

It is not Nature's plan that bearing children shall destroy comeliness or wreck health. Write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for practical counsel.

Mrs. Cora Gilson, of Yates, Manistee, Mich., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: Two years ago I began having dull, heavy, dragging pains in my back, menses were profuse and painful, and was troubled with leucorrhœa. I took patent medicines and consulted a physician, but received no benefit and could not become pregnant. Seeing one of your books, I wrote to you, telling you my troubles and asking for advice. You answered my letter promptly and I followed the directions faithfully, and derived so much benefit that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. I now find myself pregnant and have begun its use again. I cannot praise it enough."

Mrs. Ed. Waddell, Philbrook, Mont., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM. I wish to tell my suffering sisters about your Vegetable Compound, to which I owe my life and three fine, healthy children. Five years ago now, I had three miscarriages and at the time of the second one the doctor said another would kill me. In six months I had another. Well, I did nothing, I was lifeless and listless, cared for nothing. I thought I would ask your advice and try your medicine, and I am so glad I did, for it made such a change in me. I gained strength, slept well and gave birth to a nice boy with comparatively little suffering. Since then have had two children, which through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was able to bring to maturity. I feel that I could not do without your medicine at such a time. I am now well, and do all my own work. I thank you for your kind advice and shall not be without your medicine. I recommend it to all who suffer."

Mrs. Ehlinger Thanks Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM. I have many, many thanks to give you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. After first confinement I was sick for nine years with prolapsus of the womb, had pain in left side, in small of back, a great deal of headache, palpitation of heart and leucorrhœa. I felt so weak and tired that I could not do my work. I became pregnant again and took your Compound all through, and now have a sweet baby girl. I never before had such an easy time during labor, and feel it was due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now able to do my work and feel better than I have for years. I cannot thank you enough."—Mrs. Edward Ehlinger, Devine, Texas.

Beware of Liquid Kidney Remedies!

they contain Alcohol. Sick kidneys should not be fed on Alcohol—it aggravates the disease. Utah Kidney Beans are solid; they are concentrated; and they act directly on the kidneys.

Rev. Roland Hull, an eminent clergyman of the Baptist Church, residing at Williamsport, Tennessee, endorses Utah Kidney Beans for the great relief his wife received from using them. Rev. Mr. Hull is known from one end of the State of Tennessee to the other, having been in the ministry for over half a century. This good man would not endorse a medicine or anything else unless he knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that it was worthy. Therefore, such endorsements give Utah Kidney Beans a standing that no other kidney remedy in the country has. Mrs. Hull received great benefit from the use of Utah Kidney Beans; they gave her new strength—and new life. They will lift all sufferers from kidney troubles out of sick beds and restore them to vigorous health. Strength begins to return after the first few doses.

AFFAIRS OF THE SHOP AND RAIL

Charlie Meyers Receives Promotion.

MADE ASSISTANT

To First Assistant Foreman Deihl.

The Wabash Receives One of Its New Engines--Other News.

The office of second assistant foreman in the locomotive department of the Pittsburg shops, which was recently vacated by J. D. Harris by promotion, has been filled by F. C. Meyers, one of the machinists. Mr. Meyers will make his reports to Captain H. M. Deihl, first assistant foreman. Charlie Meyers is one of the best known machinists in the city, having resided here many years. He was, a few years ago, a member of the city council, representing the Tenth ward on that board. He is a member of the City band and belongs also to several social and benevolent organizations. His place at the bench has been taken by George Slater, another well known machinist in the shop.

An Ancient Paper.

Station Master J. W. Clark, of the Pennsylvania, has the time card he drew when he was employed as a trainman on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road before the war. The paper bears the date of February 3, 1861, and is signed by J. N. Dubarry, superintendent; C. E. Morse and T. J. Nixon, masters of transportation respectively of divisions C and D. No. 2, the fast train on the road at that time, made the run between Chicago and Fort Wayne in five hours and forty-five minutes, which in those days was regarded very fast time. The No 2 of today (the limited) covers the distance between the two cities mentioned in three hours and forty-seven minutes.

Rates to Winona Assembly.

For the Winona assembly, Winona Lake, Ind, the Central Passenger association will charge one and one-third fare for the round trip, plus 10 per cent. for season tickets, to be sold from May 15 to September 13, inclusive, good going only on date of sale and returning no later than September 15; one fare for the round trip plus 10 per cent. for tickets bearing a limit of fifteen days, on sale from May 15 to September 13.

Claim Agents' Meeting.

The tenth annual meeting of the Association of Railway Claim Agents will be held at Hotel Iroquois, Buffalo, N. Y., commencing May 24th and continuing three days. W. E Hunter, claim agent of the Pittsburg, will attend the meeting.

Another Increase of the Shop Force.

Eight new names were added to the pay rolls of the Fort Wayne Electric Manufacturing company this morning, the men being formerly employes of the Fort Wayne Electric corporation. They are Ed. Hausbach, Frank Doenges, Charles H. Knothe, Charles Hickley, H. N. Hart, William Murphy, Fred Moser and Charles Brenner.

The New Wabash Engines.

The Wabash will soon have seven new passenger engines in service, the first of which, No. 651, has already been completed. These engines will be placed upon the middle and Buffalo divisions. J. B. Barnes, superintendent of motive power, who designed them, said: "These engines are 30,000 pounds lighter than those of the Columbia type. The driving wheels are the same diameter and by eliminating the trailer wheel we have the same tractive force as in the Columbia type With an ordinary train these engines should develope as much speed as the Columbia type."

The Firemen's Arduous Duties.

Some of the railways are considering plans for relieving the fireman of some of his arduous duties while out on the road. The fireman of today does harder work than any other train employe and an assistant has been suggested as a remedy. On one of the large modern locomotives the fireman handles over twenty tons of coal on a single trip. Only the strongest men can perform the duties required of a locomotive fireman nowadays.

A Mormon Line.

Surveyors are out running a line for a railroad which, if built, will connect Salt Lake City, Utah, with Deming, the center of the Mormon colonies in New Mexico. Local capital will build the road from Deming to Columbus, N. M., a distance of thirty-five miles, expecting to then interest foreign capital in the enterprise and secure the completion of the line to the Mormon metropolis in Utah.

The Poor Section Man.

The "section hand" is about to receive just recognition from his employers. For several years this class of labor has been illy paid and worked hard, but a demand for labor in other fields and a scarcity of men willing to work for a mere pittance has brought the matter to the attention of the railway managers in a manner that promises to redound advantageously to the section man. Two months ago some of the eastern roads raised the wages of this class of labor and now the western roads are at it. A few days ago the Erie did the proper thing when the wages of the men employed between Warren and Niles were advanced from $1 15 to $1.25 a day. The Chicago and Alton has increased the wages of 800 section men on the two divisions between Chicago and Bloomington and between Dwight and Peoria, from $1.10 to $1.25 per day.

Flag That Next Train!

[Philadelphia S. S. Journal.]

There had been a sad railroad accident. The engineer was caught in the overturn of the locomotive, pinned to the earth, and could not possibly extricate himself. Others came to release him. His thoughts, however, were on the next train, the train behind. And then came in thought the awful crash of a collision. "Boys!" cried Engineer Kennar, "go back and flag the second Atlantic, if you haven't done it."

Noble, heroic soul, his first thought was for the train behind. They succeeded at last in liberating his body, but his only liberator was death itself, which came in a very few minutes.

Flag the next train!

Do we always bear in mind the train that is coming? That next train is coming fast. The boys and girls of today will be men and women tomorrow. This next train is confronted by peculiar dangers. On the track we hope—heading for righteousness and temperance, honesty and integrity; but what perils may yet be before it!

Our children may be tempted to tamper with the evil of "light drinks." Flag the train! There is a beer-barrel on the track! They may be solicited to look upon licentious prints. Flag the train! There is a bad book on the track! They may be urged to put off the day of salvation. Flag the train! The bowlder of procrastination has fallen across the rail. And here is evil company, beckoning the boys and girls to wrong-doing. Flag the train! Be quick! Wreckers are working on the rails, threatening the lives that are coming.

Special Rates.

Up to date the Central Passenger association has granted a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip for the following occasions:

American Foundrymen's association, Pittsburg, Pa., May 16 to 19.

American Waterworks association, Columbus, Ohio, May 16 to 19.

National Conference of Charities and Correction, Cincinnati, Ohio, May 17 to 23.

Western Gas association, Milwaukee, Wis., June 14 to 16.

Sons of Temperance, national division, Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 11 to 14.

Two Offices Consolidated.

Today the two general freight departments of the Pennsylvania railroad, which heretofore were under different heads, were united and placed in charge of John B. Thayer, jr., with George D. Dixon as assistant general freight agent, headquarters in New York city. Mr. Chipley, for so many years the general freight agent, will retain his connection with the road in an advisory capacity.

General and Personal.

Henry Beck, of the Pittsburg pattern shop, is sick and off duty.

A. R. Feriter, who had some fingers injured two weeks ago, while at work in the Pittsburg machine shop, has recovered from the injury and this morning resumed his duties there.

Road Foreman of Engines Frank Ray spent Sunday with his family at New Castle, Pa.

W. Jahn, G. Meyers, C. Lucas and J. Laughlan, of the Pittsburg shops, are on the sick list today.

The Wabash earned in the third week of April $272,751, an increase over the corresponding week last year of $9,802.

Rumor says that the Pennsylvania company has purchased the Brice estate's interest in the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus.

Engineer Rogers is taking a lay off to attend to some private business and Michael Shea took Pennsylvania train No. 37 out this morning in Mr. Rogers' stead.

Engines 78, 620 and 504, from the eastern division, and switch engine 119, from the Chicago yards, were taken into the Fort Wayne shops this morning for repairs.

W. S. Danes, bridge and building superintendent of the Wabash, came up from Peru last night and spent a portion of today here in looking after matters which come under his supervision.

E. S. Taylor left today for New York, from whence he will sail next Wednesday for Berlin, where he will assume responsible duties in a big electrical concern. The young man is a son of I. N. Taylor and a nephew of Judge R. S. Taylor.

Joseph Carry has recovered from an attack of rheumatism which laid him up one month and this morning resumed his place at the forge in the Pittsburg 'smith shop. Ed. Quinn, jr., also returned to his duties in that shop after a week's illness.

Another engine from the Buffalo division of the Wabash road is en route here to go into the shops for repairs. There are already two engines in the shops from that division. It is expected that there will be from one to three engines from that part of the line here all the time.

S. R. Callaway, president of the New York Central, has approved the construction of a three story brick clubhouse, 40x90, at the foot of West Seventy-second street, New York. The building will be erected by the railroad company for the Young Men's Christian Association of railroad employes, and will cost $35,000.

Facts Plainly Stated

Convince Thinking People.

When a man jumps up and down and yells at you until he is black in the face, in an effort to convince you of something, you are not convinced, simply because you know that if his statements have truth back of them, all the spectacular business is uncalled for. That is the reason Sam, Pete & Max always confine their advertising to the simple statement of facts as they exist. People who want clothing properly made, in best styles and at prices which leave no question of doubt in their minds as to the values they are getting, are coming to Sam, Pete & Max's in larger numbers every day. We do not insult your intelligence by advertising goods at half their worth, but better goods, for the money, than we offer have not yet been produced. In men's, boys' and children's clothing we show the largest stock in this section. Compare our goods with anybody's for proof of value.

IT TAKES COURAGE.

"A great deal of talent is lost to the world," said Sydney Smith, "for the want of a little courage." If a man would accomplish anything in this world, if he would make his mark on his age, he must not be afraid of assuming responsibility. Of course, it requires courage to take chances of failure, to be subjected to the risk of criticism for an unpopular cause, to expose oneself to the shafts of everybody's ridicule; but the man who is not true to himself, who cannot carry out the sealed orders placed in his hands at his birth, regardless of the world's "yes" or "no," of its approval or disapproval; the man who has not courage to trace the pattern of his destiny, which no other soul knows but his own, can never rise to the true dignity of manhood, or attain success.

It takes courage for a young man or woman to stand firmly erect while others are bowing and fawning for praise and power. It takes courage to wear threadbare clothes while your companions dress in broadcloth and silks. It takes courage to remain in honest poverty when others grow rich by fraud. It takes courage to say "no" squarely when those around you say "yes." It takes courage to do your duty in silence and obscurity although others prosper and grow famous while neglecting sacred obligations.

It takes courage and pluck to be laughed at, scoffed, ridiculed, derided, misjudged,—to stand alone with all the world against you. It takes courage to practice rigid economy while those about you squander their earnings, but "They are slaves who dare not be in the right with two or three!" It takes courage to refuse to follow custom when it is injurious to health and morals. To espouse an unpopular cause often requires more courage than to lead a charge in battle. It takes courage to be true to yourself while others about you would rather strangle their individuality than be tabooed by Mrs. Grundy. But remember that all things serve a brave soul, and the world makes way for the man who boldly presses on.

It is hoped that the artillery and infantry companies shall have organized by that time as it will add greatly to the success of the program. The principal address of the day will be made by Congressman Robinson and Rev. Sherman Powell will also speak.

A GREETING TO ADMIRAL DEWEY

AN OFFICER MISSING

Captain Abercrombie is a Prisoner.

Admiral Dewey Cables That Bancroft's Men are Prisoners of Rebels.

"New York, May 1, 1899.—Dewey, Manila: On this anniversary of your great victory the people of the United States unite in an expression of affection and gratitude to yourself and the brave officers and men of your fleet, whose brilliant achievement marked an epoch in history and which will live in the annals of the world's heroic deeds.

"William McKinley."

THE BANCROFT'S MEN.

"Manila, April 30.—Secretary of Navy, Washington: Apparently reliable information, ten of the Yorktown boat crew, including Gilmore, are prisoners at insurgent headquarters. Am continuing investigation. Dewey."

CAPT. ROCKEFELLER MISSING.

Washington, May 1.—The war department has received no advices from General Otis since Saturday concerning the conditions in the Philippines.

In the two dispatches received today no mention is made of the negotiations with the insurgents, nor of any fighting.

General Otis reports that Captain Rockefeller, of the Ninth infantry, has been missing since the 28th of April. Captain Rockefeller was making some investigations about Caloocan and has not been seen since the date given. Some of his personal papers have been found about two miles from Caloocan.

It is feared that he has been captured by some of the insurgents' bands.

"Manila, May 1.—Adjutant General, Washington: Captain Rockefeller, Ninth infantry, missing since 28th ultimo. On line commanding battalion near Caloocan; visited outposts 9:30 p. m.; not seen since. Diligent search made that night two miles to front; nothing discovered; no enemy in front. Search prosecuted ever since without success. Private papers in his possession found 29th ultimo two and one-half miles to front. Belief lost course and captured. Otis."

Captain Charles Rockefeller entered the army as a private in the Seventh New York, in 1861. He served through the civil war, reaching the rank of first lieutenant of volunteers. He became a second lieutenant in the Ninth infantry in 1867, and has been with that regiment ever since. He has always been known as a good soldier, and was a graduate of the infantry and cavalry school. He was well up in the list of captains and would have received a major's commission in a short time.

ADMIRAL DEWEY TO RETURN.

Washington, May 1. — Admiral Dewey will return to the United States upon the conclusion of hostilities in the Philippines. He has advised the navy department that he does not feel he would be justified in deserting his command while hostilities continue, but he hopes to return immediately after they are concluded.

Admiral Dewey in a personal letter written to a friend in this city, says he dreads returning to the United States. He has heard of a reception given the fleet upon its return from Santiago, and of the various banquets and receptions which have been given officers participating in the naval victory, and for this reason is dubious about returning.

He says upon his return he wishes to come here quietly and without ostentation, and does not want a celebration or reception. He intends upon his return to take a long rest before assuming active duties.

Continuing, the admiral says if his entire squadron could return with him he would be pleased to have a reception in its honor, but personally he is much averse to it.

Admiral Dewey is a member of the Philippine commission appointed by the president, and his presence in Manila will be imperative until matters assume their usual routine. In view of his long service and the arduous duties he has been compelled to perform it is more than possible he will be relieved from serving on the commission, should he so desire.

The admiral wishes it understood he does not care to leave Manila until law and order are restored.

FROM BLUEFIELDS.

The Situation There is Not Satisfactory.

Late Advices Indicate That the State of Affairs Has Not at All Improved.

Washington, May 1.—Advices received here from Bluefields, Nicaragua, indicate that the situation there so far as American interests are concerned is extremely unsatisfactory and discouraging.

It is being impressed upon the officials here that persons high in the Nicaraguan government are pursuing a policy calculated very deliberately to crush the American business interests, now of considerable magnitude in the Mosquito country.

The reports are to the effect that ever since the Clarence rebellion some years ago, the Nicaraguan government has been jealous of the growing importance of the American settlements, and the Reyes rebellion recently seems to have confirmed it in the determination to destroy the American influence in that section. The Nicaraguans hold the American merchants responsible for the Reyes rebellion.

They have consequently determined, according to reports received here, to impose upon these American merchants the entire expense to which the government was put in repressing the rebellion, amounting to about $600,000.

This could not be done directly without a breach of international law, hence the attempt was made to collect a large part of it through a demand upon the merchants for a second payment upon imports paid to the de facto government of Bluefields while Reyes was in possession of the place.

The reports show that this government of Reyes was actually de facto in the full sense of the term.

In proof of this it is shown that Estrada, the Nicaraguan governor of the place, sought and was given refuge in the United States consular agency. Also the dues collected on imports were collected for Reyes by the same treasurer who had held the place for the past three years.

The American interests in Bluefields alone now aggregate fully $2,000,000 in gold, and the state department is determined that they shall be protected against the proposed extortion, so that interesting news is expected at any moment in view of a United States man of war there, the Detroit, to execute the orders of the department.

Miller, M. C. Gross and two or three others to assist him. Administrators H. J. Miller and R. S. Taylor may occupy rooms in the Elektron building while settling the affairs of the estate of the late R. T. McDonald.

CHICAGO DOLLAR DINNER.

Chicago, May 1.—The committee of arrangements having in charge the dollar banquet, similar to the affair recently given in New York, have decided to hold it on May 20, under the auspices of the Carter Harrison Unionist league, a semi-political organization formed for the purpose of aiding Mayor Harrison in his recent campaign. It is understood that Col. William Jennings Bryan and Mayor Carter H. Harrison have already accepted invitations to speak.

STRIKE ABOUT OVER.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 1.—Over 500 grain shovellers are at work on the docks today. All of them belong to old union No. 51. The police are on hand in large force, but the seceders are making no attempt to interfere with the workers.

DEWEY DAY IS CELEBRATED

WIDELY OBSERVED.

A Big Naval Pageant in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 1.—Dewey day was celebrated in this city with imposing pomp and ceremony. Governor Stone, by proclamation, made the occasion a holiday in this state on the recommendation of the legislature. He is not vested with the power to make the event continuous, so greater efforts were extended to render the exercises the more auspicious. Public institutions were open for business as usual.

The most important event was the naval parade on the Delaware river, which was reviewed by naval and civic dignitaries. The harbor presented a beautiful spectacle, innumerable flags and red, white and blue bunting entwined with the city colors, blue and gold, being displayed in profusion on hundreds of vessels. The buildings along the river front and throughout the city were gaily decorated.

The cruiser Raleigh was the chief object of interest. The war ship was anchored at the extreme turning point of the line of the naval parade. Next to her was the revenue cutter Algonquin and then came all the available craft now assembled at League Island.

All the vessels to participate in the pageant started at a signal from the navy yard, from a point a short distance below League Island.

The parade proceeded up the east side of the river, passing the Raleigh, Captain Coghlan reviewing the procession from the bridge of the war ship. As the head of the procession reached the Raleigh, the gallant little cruiser fired the national salute, and then until the last vessel in the parade had repassed her on the west side of the river the salutes from the Raleigh were almost continuous.

The Russian naval officers who are here superintending the construction of the new Russian war ships at Cramps', participated in the ceremonies, reviewing the parade with Captain Coghlan. Throughout the state local celebrations are being held in honor of the hero of Manila bay.

OBSERVED IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 1.—The celebration of Dewey day in Chicago was mostly of an indoor character. In a majority of the schools an hour was set aside for appropriate exercises in honor of the first anniversary of the battle of Manila.

This evening numerous banquets and entertainments will be given, including an "expansion" dinner at the Quadrangle club. The celebration will be brought to a close with the rendition of the "Manila Te Deum" at the auditorium theatre to-night, under the auspices of several society women. Three hundred voices will compose the chorus. The proceeds of the entertainment will be donated to the Chicago maternity hospital and training school for nurses.

PITTSBURG CELEBRATES.

Pittsburg, May 1.—Dewey day is being celebrated by special exercises in the schools and by a reception to the three members of the Raleigh crew who are here to attend the mass meeting scheduled for to-night at Old City Hall. Extensive preparations have been made for this meeting and a big time is expected. The city is gaily decorated in honor of Dewey.

NEW YORK OBSERVES THE DAY

New York, May 1.—Dewey day was celebrated in the public schools in this city by special exercises in commemoration of the victory at Manila and by the flying of flags on all school buildings.

DEWEY DAY IN BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Dewey day was celebrated here today by a display of flags over the national, state and city buildings and prominent business houses, and also by receptions held by patriotic societies. In many of the public schools there were appropriate exercises.

A CANNON EXPLODES.

Mauch Chunk, Pa., May 1.—By the premature discharge of a cannon used in the celebration of Dewey day, three persons were badly injured. They were: Unknown boy, badly burned and cut; Jery Conway, three fingers blown off, and James McGee, arm torn off. McGee displayed remarkable nerve. He picked up his arm and carried it to a railroad hospital car. The cannon was heavily loaded with powder and stones.

FOR CONCORDIA COLLEGE.

Concordia college, of this city, was substantially remembered by general conference of the German Evangelical Lutheran synod in session at St. Louis. Among the educational appropriations made by the synod was one of $7,000 the institution in this city.

TALE OF SUFFERING.

Copper River Miners Return to United States.

Many Are Afflicted With Scurvy and Frost Bites--Many Died in Gold Country.

Seattle, Wash., May 1.—Sixty prospectors arrived here to-day from Copper River, Alaska, on the steamer Excelsior. They brought with them a repetition of the stories of privations and death and many bore evidence on their bodies of the ravages of scurvy and frost. A man named Young hobbled off the vessel on the stumps of two legs. Another named Alex Powell had but one foot.

E. C. Goodwin, of Oakland, Cal., whose legs are black with scurvy and whose knees are bruised by contact with the ice, tells an interesting story of his experiences which were similar to that of others.

While encamped in the interior, his partner, Wesley Schädicker, of Grand Ridge, Ill., fell sick with scurvy and soon became unable to travel. Goodwin strapped him on a sled and started to the coast. After four days of almost herculean labor, he arrived at the mouth of the Chitna river, but his partner was frozen stark and stiff to the sled. He buried him in the snow. Continuing his journey to the coast he came across a tent in which there were two men sick with scurvy. They were Dixon Hutton, of Memphis, Tenn., and T. B. Rawlings, of Little Rock, Ark.

Another man happened along at the same time and he and Goodwin put Rawlings and Hutton on sleds and dragged them to the coast. Others are reported sick, but their names are lacking.

It was rumored that a party of prospectors was coming out from the interior and it was feared they might have been caught in the slide.

The government expedition under Captain Abercrombie were arranging to begin the construction of a road into the interior when the Excelsior left. Relief parties with provisions and anti-scorbutics had been sent into the interior.

REPORT FROM ABERCROMBIE.

Washington, May 1.—Acting Secretary Meiklejohn has received a report from Captain Ambercrombie, who is commanding the expedition investigating the Copper river route to the Yukon country. The report comes through Captain Jacobinson, quartermaster at Seattle, Wash., who says that the following message was handed to him by the purser of the steamer Excelsior, which arrived yesterday from Valdez, Alaska:

"My expedition disembarked today, April 23rd. Hospital organized for the care of destitute miners, who are now coming out of the interior by the route you contemplate opening as a military road. While the conditions are distressing so far as the destitute are concerned, the worst is over. A full report follows.

"Abercrombie, Commanding."

DISCUSSED RACIAL TROUBLES.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 1.—Rev. H. J. Calls preached last night at the Zion A. M. E. church, colored, on the racial troubles of the south. He said that the white women of the south had not protected their own chastity.

He made the plea for the organization of the colored men; said that 2,500,000 were able to carry arms and predicted that if the murders of colored men in the south did not cease there would be a conflict between the black and white men of the south. He said that his brethren in the south looked to the north for salvation.

SOME ADVICE FROM GERMANY

Would Have War Stop in Philippines.

OUR POWER SHOWN

Berlin, May 1.—The newspapers of Germany, commenting upon the latest news from the Philippine islands, express the hope that the United States will now end the hostilities in the far east.

The Frankfurter Zeitung says:

"We trust that President McKinley and his advisors will not be misled by jingo shoutings, but that they will listen to the voice of the Filipinos as expressed through their leaders, and to the voice of the American nation as expressed by the serious press and the declarations of sober-minded politicians. We have never doubted the ability of the Americans to enforce their will in the Philippines; but the moment has come to make good the wrong done and bring their material interests in accord with the dictates of jusice."

The Vossehi Zeitung, basing its comment upon private advices from the Philippines, says that the continuance of the war is inflicting grave injury upon German commercial interests, and details numerous cases in support of this assertion.

The journal last quoted says that the German consul at Iloilo made a list of everything belonging to German citizens there that was destroyed or injured in the bombardment, and submitted it to Maj. Gen. E. S. Otis. In reply the consul has received from General Otis the statement that the United States will not pay the damages claimed, as Iloilo at the time of the bombardment was still in possession of the Spaniards.

Other German merchants of Iloilo who made representations of a like character to General Otis received similar replies.

VISITS NAVY YARD.

The President Received by Admiral Philip.

New York, May 1.—President and Mrs. McKinley breakfasted this morning at the Hotel Manhattan. After breakfast the president received a number of callers, among them Gen. Grenville M. Dodge. At 9:45 o'clock the president, Abner McKinley and Assistant Secretary Cortelyou entered a carriage and drove to the foot of East Twenty-third street, where they boarded a government tug and went to the navy yard. Mrs. McKinley remained at the hotel. Later in the day she and Mrs. Abner McKinley did some shopping.

The presidential party, which included General Dodge, W. W. Heaton, Surgeon Rixey, of the United States navy, and Col. W. C. Brown, were received on board the government tug Nina by Commander J. D. J. Kelley, U. S. N., who was delegated to escort them to the navy yard by Rear Admiral J. W. Philip. The tug reached the yard at 10:40 o'clock and the visitors landed at the foot of Main street. As the Nina turned into the Wallabout basin the guns on board the Vermont belched forth a salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the president.

Rear Admiral Philip, with Captains Miller, Ide, Frahhanoldt and Arnold, greeted the president and his escort when they came ashore. President McKinley and the commandant then led the others up the yard to the lyceum building, in front of which all the officers on duty at the yard were lined up in special full dress. One hundred marines, in command of Col. R. W. Huntington and Captains W. C. Neville and W. J. McKelvey, faced the building. As the president approached the marine band played "Hail to the Chief," and while the marines presentd arms the officers and spectators doffed their hats.

Admiral Philip introduced each of the officers to the president, who shook hands with every one of them. After this the party was escorted through the stores and factories and then visited the Yosemite and Glacier, which they inspected.

After the inspection they were invited to luncheon at the commandant's residence. After luncheon the president and the other visitors returned to the city on board the Nina and as the vessel swung into the East river another salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the Vermont, on which vessel the president's flag was flying.

HEAD CRUSHED.

George W. Mason Falls Under a Train.

A Distressing Accident at the East Yards in Which a Brakeman Loses His Life.

G. W. Mason, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania construction train, was instantly killed at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the east yards.

He attempted to climb upon the train while it was in motion and losing his hold fell between two flat cars and his head was squashed to a pulp by the wheels which passed over it.

The unfortunate man was married and lived with his wife at 90 Fourth street. He had no children. His age was 28 years. He had been in the employ of the company for about a year.

He was brought to the Pennsylvania depot on the train and was removed thence to Peltier's morgue.

The deceased was a brother-in-law of William E. Angevine, the real estate agent in the Arcade.

HOTEL THIEVES.

Two Tricks Turned Here Last Saturday--Police Have a Trial.

Saturday evening when William Goers returned to his room at the Webber hotel after his day's work he found that his room had been entered and $100 in cash which was in a cigar box in a trunk had been stolen. His room was on the third floor and the theft is believed to have been the work of the same sneak thief who stole the suit of clothes from the Custer house. The police are investigating, but have no clue.

Superintendent Gorsline's investigation developes that Saturday morning two strangers were taken to the Custer house by Merchant Policeman Kiel. They left the hotel without being seen at 9 o'clock, and it was only shortly after that that two men answering the same description called at the Webber house and asked for a room, saying they had traveled all night. At 11 o'clock the men came down stairs and complained that they could not sleep on account of the heat. The asked when dinner would be ready, were answered and left the place, going west on Grand stret. Superintendent Gorsline has telephoned a description to Huntington, Peru, Lafayette and other cities west.

SPAIN IS PAID.

French Ambassador Receives the Sum at the State Department for Madrid Government.

Washington, May 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Vanderlip this morning handed to Secretary Hay the drafts for $20,000,000 to be turned over to the Spanish government through Ambassador Cambon, according to the terms of the Spanish treaty.

The state department at once sent word to the French ambassador that the warrants were in hand and would be turned over to him at any time. Shortly before 11 o'clock M. Cambon strolled over to the state department.

He was alone and no extra precaution was taken to guard the transfer of such a large amount. Secretary Hay received the ambassador in the diplomatic room, where the transfer took place with little formality.

The ambassador handed Secretary Hay a formal receipt, which had already been prepared.

Abandonment of Open Door Policy Thought to be Harmful to America.

Washington, May 1.—Lord Salisbury's speech last evening in reference to the agreement reached by Great Britain and Russia as to China was read with the greatest interest here.

The prevailing sentiment is one of relief that by this agreement has been removed an element that threatened to involve in hostilities two great nations with which the United States was desirous to live on the most friendly terms. There is some curiosity to know just how the commercial interests of the United States are likely to be affected by this important arrangement. It may be stated that the highest official authority here does not accept the view set out in some of the British newspapers that the United States has lost its chance in China; that the door is shut against us, and that we have deserved this exclusion by failing to substantially assist England in securing he open door policy as to all China.

It is said that so far as the English sphere in China is concerned, the United States will have free entry commercially, while assurances have been secured from Russia that United States commerce will be treated on terms of equality with Russian commerce in any portion of China that may come under her influence.

WAGES ARE RAISED.

Cleveland, O., May 1.—It is estimated that over 3,500 mechanics of this city will receive increased wages dating from to-day. Seven hundred machine molders went to their work this morning with an advance of 10 per cent, and the stove plate molders receive a like advance. The carpenters get two and one-half cents more an hour, making a total hour scale of twenty-seven and one-half cents, and are also benefited by a universal eight hour run. The union plumbers start the month with a straight $3 a day scale, an advance of 25 cents a day. The structural iron workers get a 5 per cent. advance and the brick layers work for 50 cents an hour instead of 45 cents per hour as heretofore. The plasterers receive a slight increase and the lathers' union members receive $2.50 per day instead of $2.

BUYS ART FOR HIS PALACE.

Paris, May 1.—Senator W. A. Clark, the copper king of Montana, who bought Fortuny's "Choice of a Model" in New York, is buying up all the old furniture and works of the great painters that he can obtain here. The furniture and pictures are intended for his contemplated palace on Fifth avenue, New York. The furniture belongs to the periods of Louis Quatorze, Louis Quinze, Louis Seize, and the empire. He has paid $20,000 for a Turner picture and has also bought several paintings by Diaz and Fortuny. The famous artist, Bonnat, is now painting a life-size portrait of Senator Clark. The senator, in speaking of his art purchases today, said: "I mean to have the best collection of pictures in the United States and to build the finest residence in New York. Ex-Secretary Whitney's house will be poor in comparison."

BILL KUEHNE WON THE GAME

His Single in the Ninth Settled It.

A SLUGGING MATCH

Between Fort Wayne and Toledo.

Glasscock Sent Kuehne to Bat in Place of Bergen After Two Men Wore Out--Notes.

That was a real mean trick that Bill Kuehne worked on Charley Strobel's Mud Hens at Toledo yesterday afternoon. And Manager Jack Glasscock was a party to the trick, too.

The first game of the season was about over. It was the ninth inning and the Mud Hens were in the lead. The first half was over and Fort Wayne must get two runs to win. Glasscock led off with a single and three minutes later was doubled up with Norcom on the "Indian's" hard drive at Griffin, which the former Fort Wayneite handled cleanly and quickly, although earlier in the game he had juggled the sphere twice. With two out and Rapp at the bat, the chances were indeed blue for the Hoosiers and their 300 rooters, who had journeyed almost one hundred miles to see them take a fall out of Charley Strobel's Mud Hens. Cates, who was twirling for Toledo, was rattled, victory was so close, and sent Rapp to base on four wide balls. "Holly" came up with a determination to line 'er out and send in Rapp with the tying run. But Cates wouldn't have it that way and the little shortstop also walked to second. It was Bergen's time at bat, but Manager Glasscock believed he had done enough good work behind the bat, and realizing that Bill Kuehne, who had been taking tickets at the 25-cent gate, knew a thing or two about hitting the ball, called on the big infielder to bat in the backstop's place. Bill went to the plate and Cates floated a pretty one over. "One strike," shouted the umpire. Another one of Cates' easy shoots came marching up to the plate with a tempting smile which seemed to say, "You can't hit me." Bill accepted the challenge and Mr. Sphere went sailing out into Mr. Gilks' territory for a pretty single and Rapp and Hollingsworth raced around the bases. Gilks was nervous and allowed the ball to get past him and when he did get it threw to third base and before the ball could be sent to the Toledo catcher Hollingsworth had followed Rapp over the plate with the winning run and several hundred Fort Wayne rooters were over the front of the grand stand cheering and shaking the Hoosier players like mad. And the big Toledo crowd was very much crestfallen.

The game was one of that character that to write all about it would occupy several columns of space. The Toledo "fans" had heard of the prowess of Jack Glasscock's rejuvenated Hoosiers and there were almost 3,000 people in the grounds to see the two clubs contest in the first championship game of the season. And they were repaid by seeing one of the most exciting games that was ever played on any diamond. Brodie was in the points and Bergen instead of Zimram was sent in to catch him. "Smoke" and his new battery partner worked well the first two innings and the Toledos couldn't get a score, while the Fort Waynes had taken advantage of some very rank errors and several clean hits to send six runs trickling over the home plate. The Mud Hens scored one in the third. It was in the fourth that the first real damage was done. Brodie was floating the balls up and one man was out when Tim Flood made an error. Billy Smith came to the bat and sent a lone one over the fence for a home run. "Holly" fumbled McDonough's hard one to short and then Arthur followed with the second home run hit of the inning, scoring two more runs. Whissen was sent to the rubber at this point to relieve Brodie. Cates followed with a three-bagger and scored before the inning ended. Then the Toledo "fans" went crazy. The Mud Hens scored one run in each of the next three innings, one of them a long home run into Casino park by Erve Beck. In Fort Wayne's half of the seventh the score was tied, one of the three runs being a homer by Belden over Bob Gilks' head into the Casino. Fort Wayne scored a run in the eighth and took the lead. In the first half of the ninth, with a man on base, Billy Smith sent another home run hit into the Casino and the score was 11 to 10 against the Hoosiers. Then followed the sensational bit of playing by the Fort Waynes chronicled in the first paragraph of this article. Score:

BASE BALL NOTES.

George Reiman will pitch today.

There were 2,550 paid admissions at the Toledo game yesterday.

The championship season opens in Fort Wayne next Thursday when Grand Rapids comes for two games.

The Kokomos beat Dayton Saturday by a score of 3 to 2. Roach and "Kid" Fear formed the Kokomo battery.

The National league winners Saturday were Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

Ira Belden and Tim Flood lambasted the ball very hard yesterday, and it was their batting which made it possible for the Fort Waynes to win.

There were 27,494 people at the Chicago-St. Louis ball game in the Windy City yesterday. Between 7,000 and 10,000 people were turned away. This is the largest crowd that ever attended a ball game.

Buffalo won four consecutive games from Indianapolis and now leads the Western league in the race for the pennant. The game yesterday was won in the ninth inning. Not a Bison crossed the rubber until the ninth when, with the score 3 to 0 in favor of Indianapolis, Scott weakened and Manager Nash's alleged weaklings scored seven times.

Manager Glascock sent Carney to the plate in the seventh to bat for Rapp, but Captain Gilks entered a protest and threatened to stop the game if the twirler was not withdrawn. Manager Strobel received a telegram from President Power authorizing him not to play the game if an attempt was made to play Carney. The management ordered Carney to return to Fort Wayne last evening, but he failed to come.

A special this morning says that Manager Strobel will protest yesterday's game because Umpire Grim refused to allow Smith a home run on a hit which struck the limbs of a tree hanging over the Casino fence, the ball falling inside the park. Letcher fielded the ball and held Smith at second base. The dispatch also says Kuehne was not in uniform when he made the hit that scored the winning run. Kuehne was in uniform and although the uniform was not a new one, it was gray and "conformed to the suits worn by his team mates." Smith scored on the hit which it is asserted Strobel will protest and it resulted the same as a run anyhow. Furthermore the ball never went over the fence, but struck the limbs which hung above the fence. Charley Strobel has too much base ball sense to protest a game on such flimsy pretexts.

The Shamrocks went to Findlay Saturday and beat the Findlay semi-professional team by a score of 9 to 2. Wayne and O'Meara were in the points for Fort Wayne. Sunday the Shamrocks were beaten by a score of 10 to 2. Robbins and O'Meara were in the points for the Fort Waynes. O'Meara made three two-baggers in the first game.

SUNDAY BASE BALL

Vigorously Denounced by Rev. L. L. Henson Last Evening.

As a prelude to the regular services at the Baptist Tabernacle last evening, the pastor, Rev. Henson, paid his respects to Sunday base ball in scathing terms. He took a pronounced stand against the Sunday games, and did not mince words in defining his position. He declared himself unalterably opposed to Sunday base ball, both from a moral standpoint and because it is a violation of the laws of the state and quoted the section of the Indiana statute which makes the playing of this game and similar games on Sunday a misdemeanor. He stated that the local management had openly advertised to break this law by playing the game on Sunday, and thought that were some other persons to advertise an intention of breaking some other law it would not be permitted. He asked that no exception be made in the base ball matter, and as a citizen of Fort Wayne Rev. Henson publicly called upon the officers to enforce the law against Sunday base ball.

ALMOST A MILLION.

This Means More Than $900,000 Taken From the Tax Duplicate -Court News.

County Auditor William Meyer and his deputies have completed the taking of affidavits of mortgage indebtedness. The law provides that all these affidavits must be made before the first day of May and the auditor and his deputies worked until late Saturday evening taking care of applicants. At one time Saturday there were seven clerks filling blanks for affidavits.

Mr. Meyer tells The Sentinel that during the month of April applications for about 1,500 exemptions had been made and there are hundreds of persons who have failed to take advantage of the law, not because they were unwilling to do so, but for the reason that the law is misunderstood. There have been two or three scores of applications at the auditor's office today, but it is now too late to secure exemption, as the law states positively that the affidavits must be made before May.

The 1,500 exemptions taken means that the valuation of personal property will be decreased in this manner alone almost $1,000,000. Nine-tenths of the exemptions were for the full amount, $700, although there were a few smaller ones. The average, however, is not less than $600 each. Many of the mortgages were for thousands of dollars and in some instances had never been listed for taxation. Now the assessor will be able to place them on the duplicate. A big per cent of the loans were made in foreign companies and to individuals outside of Indiana. These cannot be assessed as the law does not provide for the assessing of property outside the state. There are some mortgages held in Indiana cities other than Fort Wayne. These will be reported to the county officers where held and placed on the docket in that county. Altogether Allen county will have a smaller assessment on personal property than heretofore.

SCHELL IS AT HOME.

Late Saturday afternoon Sheriff Melching completed arrangements with the friends of J. F. Schell for his removal from the county jail and he was taken to his residence in Lakeside, where he lies now dangerously ill. His condition is very much weaker and many of his friends and the officers believe there is much doubt as to his recovery. Last evening he was reported much weaker than at any time since his arrest. The sheriff finds it unnecessary to keep an officer at the house, although Mr. Schell is kept under surveillance all the time by some person representing the sheriff. Mrs. Schell still attends her husband, and on leaving the jail thanked Mr. Melching for his kindnesses while she was there attending him.

HE IS BETTER.

Attorney E. V. Harris this afternoon told The Sentinel that Mr. Schell was much better today. He has expressed a wish to get well and remain in Fort Wayne and face the charges that have been made against him in the indictments.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

In the circuit court this morning T. J. Logan was admitted to practice at the Allen county bar by Judge O'Rourke. The examiners were Judge John Morris, Judge Allen Zollars and William P. Breen. Mr. Logan is a thorough student of the law, his work as court reporter for a number of years having given him an insight into law that could not have been so thoroughly obtained in any other manner. Mr. Logan is certain to make a successful practitioner.

SLIGHT GAIN.

Small Increase in Fort Wayne's School Population.

Enumeration Was Completed Saturday and Reports are Being Made Up Today--Approximate Figures.

The enumeration of children of school age in the city of Fort Wayne was completed Saturday evening, and to-day the reports are being tabulated and filed with the city superintendent of schools. No definite figures are yet obtainable, but Superintendent Study told The Sentinel this afternoon that the census would show that there are within the city limits approximately 13,000 persons of school age—that is, between the ages of 6 and 21 years. Last year within the same territory there were 12,811, and from reports already received it has been computed that there is a gain of 206 for the year. These figures are subject to revision, and the exact number can not be given until the official tabulation is completed. There has undoubtedly been a slight gain, though on the face of the completed returns for the year an apparent loss may be shown. This is due to the fact that last year there were 547 pupils transferred from country districts to the city schools, and under the provisions of the new law these transfers will not appear in the enumeration of this year.

The schools will close on June 16 and the High school commencement will be held a few days before that date. There will be about thirty pupils in the graduating class and the superintendent stated that at present the indications are that the percentages of the graduates will be good.

LASTING TEETH.

Care is the only factor that Nature failed to provide to make teeth last for a life-time. She depended upon the owners of teeth for that—and it's a trust that is too often neglected.

Modern dental science has seconded Nature's claim to care by wonderful advances in making tooth care easy and effective.

But it is still your trust—is still necessary—and is still more than ever effective in helping your teeth to do what Nature intended they should—just as long as you'll have need for teeth.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple but safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases causing a pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played-out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surface of the stomach. To secure prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of diastase, aseptic, pepsin, a little nux, golden seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill., says: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have flesh appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

A LITERARY worker is compiling a dictionary of American college slang, and it will give also, of course, the college yells. If this work falls into the hands of the natives of our newly acquired islands, and they mistake it for the English language, some interesting results may be expected.

A TELEGRAM from New York to Manila is repeated seventeen times in transmission. The intermediate stages are to Newfoundland, Ireland, London, Penzance, Lisbon, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Penang, Singapore, Saigon and Hong Kong. The process will be quite different when a Pacific cable connects San Francisco with Honolulu and Manila.

SOME of the clergymen of Toledo are advocating municipal ownership of the saloons and Mayor Jones is quoted as saying that he inclines to a similar policy. He says: "It is ahead of the prohibition or any similar plan, so far as I have been able to form an opinion. I have not had the time to think it over that I would like. It seems to me that the root of the evil is the profit. No man would start a saloon if it were not for the profit attached."

AN American military officer at Manila writes that the Filipinos have had available three times as many soldiers as the Americans, but have no organizing faculty. They "seem able only to put arms in the hands of thousands of men, and then let them fight as individuals and separate bodies as circumstances dictate. Their instinct and training are to fight always from cover, and this utterly unfits them for the offensive." The operations of the last three months prove the truth of the opinion.

ELECTRICITY has been practically applied on a farm near St. Johnsville, N. Y. There are two falls on the land, and one of sixty feet is used to generate a current of 270 horse-power. Wires run from the power house to the dwelling, barn and other buildings, giving all the light, heat and motor energy desired. Separate motors operate a hay-cutter, threshing machine and circular saw. The cooking is done by electricity, and dairy operations performed by the same means. At night the arc light illuminates the premises around the house. A fourth of the power is sold to two knitting factories in the neighborhood, and this nearly meets the running expenses. The cost of the plant was $5,000, but this can be greatly cut down when electrical farm machinery is reduced to a system.

THIS is May day. More conspicuously, however, it is Dewey day. It is the anniversary of Admiral George Dewey's marvelous victory in Manila bay when with his stout ships and his gallant crews it took him but a few hours to smash Montejo's fleet, crush Spain's power in the Pacific, open the way for the extinction of her sovereignty over islands that had been hers for centuries and start the United States on a career as a world power. Dewey's fight at Manila was the first real engagement of the war as it was also the greatest and the most spectacular. A vast deal of history has been made since that day one year ago. Spain has been whipped, driven from the Philippines, from Cuba and Porto Rico. Peace with that monarchy has been concluded and the last act in the brief but exciting drama has been played. From war with Spain we were forced into war with the Filipinos under Aguinaldo and that trouble is nearing its end. Of Dewey himself it seems superfluous to say anything. He is in every American's heart and his name on every American's lips. He is one of the republic's greatest heroes and easily the biggest man who has come out of the war with Spain. No honor his countrymen can bestow upon him will be denied or withheld. He has only to take what would so heartily be offered him.

IN Chicago, Sunday, an anti-expansion meeting was held and some very learned and very distinguished men were the speakers. The question of the war in the Philippines and the policy of territorial expansion was discussed from many points of view and denounced in many sorts of ways. It is difficult to understand just what these men would have our government do. It is impossible for the United States to withdraw from the islands. In many ways the Filipinos have proved their incapacity and unfitness for self government. Their own welfare demands the presence of a strong, capable governing power in the islands. Such a power is there now. With their ancient tribal feuds allowed full sway it would not be a month after the withdrawal of this government's authority until the natives would be slaughtering each other. Bloodshed, rapine and anarchy would reign most hideously. There is but one logical course for this government and that is being pursued. The rebellion must be crushed, order must be restored. Some guarantee must be established for the security of property and the safety of life in the islands. Then may wisely begin the schooling of the Filipinos in civic government. The process will be slow. All the evils that centuries of Spanish brutality and corruption in government have taught them must be unlearned. They must be brought to appreciate that the United States will deal wisely, leniently and generously with them. Once the insurgents lay down their arms, disband their armies and seek to bring prosperity back to their islands they will have no cause to complain of the part the United States has played in their affairs. Justice and civilization impose on the United States the duty of bringing out of centuries of chaos a reign of enlightenment and progress. The exigencies of war have placed the burden of the Philippines on this nation and high is the duty to make the islands and their strange and turbulent people real factors in the processes of world-civilization.

(New Orleans Times-Democrat.)

"There is some misapprehension," said a visitor from Washington, "as to the manner in which 'Fighting Bob' Evans, of the Iowa, got his soubriquet. It was coined in the Annapolis school days from a peculiar incident. When young Bob started for the academy his mother, who was very devout, gave him a small framed copy of the Lord's prayer and told him to hang it over his bed. So no sooner was he given a room than he drove a nail in the wall with a shoe heel and followed orders to the letter. Now, as you may know, the rules at Annapolis are very strict in regard to room decorations, and nothing is allowed but the regulation kit—iron bed, washstand and a few other necessary articles. Consequently when the petty inspecting officer came around he promptly ordered Bob to take down the prayer. 'I won't do it,' said Bob, and the inspector, aghast, sent for the officer of the day. That dignitary arived, red with indignation. 'Yank it down, orderly!' he roared at his assistant, but young Evans, springing to his feet, struck a pugilistic attitude before the offending tablet and swore he would smash the face of the first man who touched it. The incident was so utterly unprecedented that the officer of the day concluded to refer the whole mater to the commandant, who in turn wrote to the secretary of the navy. Meanwhile Bob had written home, and his straight-laced old parents were filled with wrath and horror. Take down the Lord's prayer! Never! They spread the news, and the little town held an indignation meeting, forwarding a set of sultry resolutions to the president himself. The result of it was that a special order was issued permitting the prayer to remain and the plucky cadet got the honorary title of 'Fighting Bob.' The title stuck, and so did the prayer. I saw it only the other day in Evans' old quarters—room 81, corridor C."

A TRYING MOMENT.

(Washington Star.)

People are telling a most remarkable story about a famous, but somewhat eccentric woman, who is just now visiting the capital. She was invited to a luncheon a week or two ago and she accepted the invitation. Several women well worth knowing were asked to meet her. When they all came to the table the famous guest asked for a finger bowl. The maid, too well trained to show surprise at anything, brought a bowl half filled with water. The famous woman drew a small bottle from her pocket and emptied its contents into the water. Then calmly she proceeded to lave her spoon and fork in the liquid, and wiped them on the damask napkin, explaining the while that for her health's sake she made it a rule never to touch her lips with silver that had not been properly sterilized. The bottle contained antiseptic of some kind—I've forgotten the name of it. The best part of the story, to my way of thinking, is what the hostess did. She did not look upon the proceeding as any reflection on her housekeeping methods. She did not stare haughtily. She simply smiled into the agonized eyes of the woman who had brought the famous guest, and said:

WIFE BEATS HER HUSBAND.

In his report for the month of April Humane Officer Schlaudroff mentions one case in which the usual order is reversed and a wife is found beating her husband. The other cases investigated for the month are summarized as follows:

Children—Abandoned or neglected, 15; beaten or abused, 9; destitute families, 8; number of children in destitute families, 13; homeless, 1; having improper homes, 24; incorrigible, 2; imbecile, 1.

Animals—Beating or whipping, 1; overdriving or overworking, 3; driven when galled or lame, 1; deprived of necessary food or shelter, 16; driven when diseased, 1; feeding decayed food, 14; cases reported at office, 19; not substantiated, 3; warned, 26; prosecuted, 1; convicted, 1; sentence suspended, 1; animals taken from work, 1.

HOMESTEAD SOLD.

A deal was closed Saturday evening by which Jeremiah B. Downing becomes the owner of the Foellinger suburban homestead, on Fairfield avenue. The property includes about ten acres of land and the price paid was $12,000. The transaction was made through the Curdes agency, and by its terms Louis Foellinger takes the Downing residence on Butler street.

COUNCIL DISTRICTS.

Now that the statutes of 1899 are distributed it will be only a few days until every law passed by the last general assembly will be effective. One of these laws was the county reform bill, which provides for the appointment of seven county councilmen in each county in the state. The counties must be divided into four districts and one each of the councilmen come from these districts, the other three being selected from the county at large. The county commissioners have divided Allen county as follows:

First district—Wayne township and the city of Fort Wayne.

At the next general election these officers, who receive $20 a year, will be elected, but in the meantime Judge O'Rourke will appoint three men to serve until the election. It is understood that there will be a minority representation on the board appointed by Judge O'Rourke. Judge O'Rourke also has the appointment of the five councilmen for each township in Allen county.

JEPHTHAH'S DAUGHTER.

Last night at Christ's Lutheran church Rev. L. J. Motschman preached another sermon in the "Women's Series," taking as his subject "Jephthah's Daughter; the Consecrated Young Woman."

It was a scholarly presentation of this famous story. It is a story much discused by writers and biblical scholars, volumes having been writen upon it. Infidels have always regarded this acount and event a veritable Gibralter of attack against Christianity. If such an event in the career of one of God's servants could be sanctioned by God, then they say Christianity is stigmatized.

The usual interpretation of this story is wrong. A careful study of the original Hebrew text, and law, and of the circumstances will reveal the fact that Jephthah's daughter was not offered as a burnt sacrifice, but was devoted to a life of service in the temple. There she lived a maiden life and was entirely and wholly consecrated unto the Lord and His service. Jephthah was rash in making the vow he did. Such a rash vow is at no time justifiable. A promise made to do something wrong should never be kept. The evil of promising to do something wrong cannot be covered up by doing that wrong. An evil vow should be broken. Vows should be sacred and made as unto God. The daughter's example in honoring the vow of her father is a great example of obedience and honor to parents. Children in the church should at the confirmation service, and by their lives thereafter, honor the vows their parents made at their bapism.

The next sermon in this series will be given next Sunday evening, with the subject, "The Witch of Endor; a Ghost Story." This will be the last of the Old Testament characters discussed in this series.

CHILD DRINKS POISON.

A three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Neher had a narow escape from being poisoned yesterday by drinking a washing compound composed of lye and ammonia. A sister of Mrs. Neher had been scrubbing the floor and had left a bottle containing the fluid on a chair near her. The little one with childish curiosity seized the bottle and took several mouthfuls. His cries brought the other members of the house who, upon discovering what had been done, immediately summoned Dr. E. J. Miller. An examination showed that the child's mouth had been severely burned and for a time it was feared that some of the liquid might have entered the stomach. He is, however, progressing toward recovery, and no serious results are feared.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Arthur Hiser, a farmer residing seven miles south of the city on the Bluffton road, was badly shaken up and bruised on Saturday afternoon as a result of a collision with a Hanna street car. He was turning the corner at Calhoun and Superior streets when the car came up behind his team and frightened them. They shied into a telegraph post and backed the vehicle in front of the car which was coming at a good speed. The car struck the wagon and smashed it to pieces, throwing Mr. Hiser violently to the ground where he lay unconscious for some time. He was cut about the face and had his right leg badly crushed, and was at once removed to his home. One of the horses had its leg broken and was shot.

Maternity

If every expectant mother would put herself under Mrs. Pinkham's care and follow her advice, which costs nothing, the experience of maternity would be approached without peril and passed with the least possible pain.

Mrs. Perley Moulton, Thetford, Vt., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine. I took several bottles of it before the birth of my baby and got along nicely. I had no after-pains and am now strong and enjoying good health. Baby is also fat and healthy."

Mrs. Chas. Gerbig, 3045 Monroe St., Baltimore, Md., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: Before taking your Vegetable Compound I was unable to become pregnant; but since I have used it my health is much improved, and I have a big baby boy, the joy and pride of our home."

It is not Nature's plan that bearing children shall destroy comeliness or wreck health. Write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for practical counsel.

Mrs. Cora Gilson, of Yates, Manistee, Mich., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: Two years ago I began having dull, heavy, dragging pains in my back, menses were profuse and painful, and was troubled with leucorrhœa. I took patent medicines and consulted a physician, but received no benefit and could not become pregnant. Seeing one of your books, I wrote to you, telling you my troubles and asking for advice. You answered my letter promptly and I followed the directions faithfully, and derived so much benefit that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. I now find myself pregnant and have begun its use again. I cannot praise it enough."

Mrs. Ed. Waddell, Philbrook, Flint., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I wish to tell my suffering sisters about your Vegetable Compound, to which I owe my life and three fine, healthy children. Five years ago now, I had three miscarriages and at the time of the second one the doctor said another would kill me. In six months I had another. Well, I did nothing; I was lifeless and listless, cared for nothing. I thought I would ask your advice and try your medicine, and I am so glad I did, for it made such a change in me. I gained strength, slept well and gave birth to a nice boy with comparatively little suffering. Since then have had two children, which through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was able to bring to maturity. I feel that I could not do without your medicine at such a time. I am now well, and do all my own work. I thank you for your kind advice and shall not be without your medicine. I recommend it to all who suffer."

Mrs. Ehlinger Thanks Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I have many, many thanks to give you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. After first confinement I was sick for nine years with prolapsus of the womb, had pain in left side, in small of back, a great deal of headache, palpitation of heart and leucorrhœa. I felt so weak and tired that I could not do my work. I became pregnant again and took your Compound all through, and now have a sweet baby girl. I never before had such an easy time during labor, and feel it was due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now able to do my work and feel better than I have for years. I cannot thank you enough."—Mrs. Edward Ehlinger, Devine, Texas.

they contain Alcohol. Sick kidneys should not be fed on Alcohol—it aggravates the disease. Utah Kidney Beans are solid; they are concentrated; and they act directly on the kidneys.

Rev. Roland Hull, an eminent clergyman of the Baptist Church, residing at Williamsport, Tennessee, endorses Utah Kidney Beans for the great relief his wife received from using them. Rev. Mr. Hull is known from one end of the State of Tennessee to the other, having been in the ministry for over half a century. This good man would not endorse a medicine or anything else unless he knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that it was worthy. Therefore, such endorsements give Utah Kidney Beans a standing that no other kidney remedy in the country has. Mrs. Hull received great benefit from the use of Utah Kidney Beans; they gave her new strength—and new life. They will lift all sufferers from kidney troubles out of sick beds and restore them to vigorous health. Strength begins to return after the first few doses.

To First Assistant Foreman Deihl.

The Wabash Receives One of Its New Engines--Other News.

The office of second assistant foreman in the locomotive department of the Pittsburg shops, which was recently vacated by J. D. Harris by promotion, has been filled by F. C. Meyers, one of the machinists. Mr. Meyers will make his reports to Captain H. M. Deihl, first assistant foreman. Charlie Meyers is one of the best known machinists in the city, having resided here many years. He was, a few years ago, a member of the city council, representing the Tenth ward on that board. He is a member of the City band and belongs also to several social and benevolent organizations. His place at the bench has been taken by George Slater, another well known machinist in the shop.

An Ancient Paper.

Station Master J. W. Clark, of the Pennsylvania, has the time card he drew when he was employed as a trainman on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road before the war. The paper bears the date of February 3, 1861, and is signed by J. N. Dubarry, superintendent; C. E. Morse and T. J. Nixon, masters of transportation respectively of divisions C and D. No. 2, the fast train on the road at that time, made the run between Chicago and Fort Wayne in five hours and forty-five minutes, which in those days was regarded very fast time. The No 2 of today (the limited) covers the distance between the two cities mentioned in three hours and forty-seven minutes.

Rates to Winona Assembly.

For the Winona assembly, Winona Lake, Ind., the Central Passenger association will charge one and one-third fare for the round trip, plus 10 per cent. for season tickets, to be sold from May 15 to September 13, inclusive, good going only on date of sale and returning no later than September 15; one fare for the round trip plus 10 per cent. for tickets bearing a limit of fifteen days, on sale from May 15 to September 13.

Claim Agents' Meeting.

The tenth annual meeting of the Association of Railway Claim Agents will be held at Hotel Iroquois, Buffalo, N. Y., commencing May 24th and continuing three days. W. E Hunter, claim agent of the Pittsburg, will attend the meeting.

Another Increase of the Shop Force.

Eight new names were added to the pay rolls of the Fort Wayne Electric Manufacturing company this morning, the men being formerly employes of the Fort Wayne Electric corporation. They are Ed. Hausbach, Frank Doenges, Charles H. Knothe, Charles Hickley, H. N. Hart, William Murphy, Fred Moser and Charles Brenner.

The New Wabash Engines.

The Wabash will soon have seven new passenger engines in service, the first of which, No. 651, has already been completed. These engines will be placed upon the middle and Buffalo divisions. J. B. Barnes, superintendent of motive power, who designed them, said: "These engines are 30,000 pounds lighter than those of the Columbia type. The driving wheels are the same diameter and by eliminating the trailer wheel we have the same tractive force as in the Columbia type. With an ordinary train these engines should develope as much speed as the Columbia type."

The Firemen's Arduous Duties.

Some of the railways are considering plans for relieving the fireman of some of his arduous duties while out on the road. The fireman of today does harder work than any other train employe and an assistant has been suggested as a remedy. On one of the large modern locomotives the fireman handles over twenty tons of coal on a single trip. Only the strongest men can perform the duties required of a locomotive fireman nowadays.

A Mormon Line.

Surveyors are out running a line for a railroad which, if built, will connect Salt Lake City, Utah, with Deming, the center of the Mormon colonies in New Mexico. Local capital will build the road from Deming to Columbus, N. M., a distance of thirty-five miles, expecting to then interest foreign capital in the enterprise and secure the completion of the line to the Mormon metropolis in Utah.

The Poor Section Man.

The "section hand" is about to receive just recognition from his employers. For several years this class of labor has been ill paid and worked hard, but a demand for labor in other fields and a scarcity of men willing to work for a mere pittance has brought the matter to the attention of the railway managers in a manner that promises to redound advantageously to the section man. Two months ago some of the eastern roads raised the wages of this class of labor and now the western roads are at it. A few days ago the Erie did the proper thing when the wages of the men employed between Warren and Niles were advanced from $1.15 to $1.25 a day. The Chicago and Alton has increased the wages of 800 section men on the two divisions between Chicago and Bloomington and between Dwight and Peoria, from $1.10 to $1.25 per day.

Flag That Next Train!

[Philadelphia S. S. Journal.]

There had been a sad railroad accident. The engineer was caught in the overturn of the locomotive, pinned to the earth, and could not possibly extricate himself. Others came to release him. His thoughts, however, were on the next train, the train behind. And then came in thought the awful crash of a collision. "Boys!" cried Engineer Kennar, "go back and flag the second Atlantic, if you haven't done it."

Noble, heroic soul, his first thought was for the train behind. They succeeded at last in liberating his body, but his only liberator was death itself, which came in a very few minutes.

Flag the next train!

Do we always bear in mind the train that is coming? That next train is coming fast. The boys and girls of today will be men and women tomorrow. This next train is confronted by peculiar dangers. On the track we hope—heading for righteousness and temperance, honesty and integrity; but what perils may yet be before it!

Our children may be tempted to tamper with the evil of "light drinks." Flag the train! There is a beer-barrel on the track! They may be solicited to look upon licentious prints. Flag the train! There is a bad book on the track! They may be urged to put off the day of salvation. Flag the train! The bowlder of procrastination has fallen across the rail. And here is evil company, beckoning the boys and girls to wrong-doing. Flag the train! Be quick! Wreckers are working on the rails, threatening the lives that are coming.

Special Rates.

Up to date the Central Passenger association has granted a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip for the following occasions:

American Foundrymen's association, Pittsburg, Pa., May 16 to 19.

American Waterworks association, Columbus, Ohio, May 16 to 19.

Two Offices Consolidated.

Today the two general freight departments of the Pennsylvania railroad, which heretofore were under different heads, were united and placed in charge of John B. Thayer, jr., with George D. Dixon as assistant general freight agent, headquarters in New York city. Mr. Chipley, for so many years the general freight agent, will retain his connection with the road in an advisory capacity.

General and Personal.

Henry Beck, of the Pittsburg pastern shop, is sick and off duty.

A. R. Feriter, who had some fingers injured two weeks ago, while at work in the Pittsburg machine shop, has recovered from the injury and this morning resumed his duties there.

Road Foreman of Engines Frank Ray spent Sunday with his family at New Castle, Pa.

W. Jahn, G. Meyers, C. Lucas and J. Laughlan, of the Pittsburg shops, are on the sick list today.

The Wabash earned in the third week of April $272,751, an increase over the corresponding week last year of $9,802.

Rumor says that the Pennsylvania company has purchased the Brice estate's interest in the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus.

Engineer Rogers is taking a lay off to attend to some private business and Michael Shea took Pennsylvania train No. 37 out this morning in Mr. Rogers' stead.

Engines 78, 620 and 501, from the eastern division, and switch engine 119, from the Chicago yards, were taken into the Fort Wayne shops this morning for repairs.

W. S. Dance, bridge and building superintendent of the Wabash, came up from Peru last night and spent a portion of today here in looking after matters which come under his supervision.

E. S. Taylor left today for New York, from whence he will sail next Wednesday for Berlin, where he will assume responsible duties in a big electrical concern. The young man is a son of I. N. Taylor and a nephew of Judge R. S. Taylor.

Joseph Carry has recovered from an attack of rheumatism which laid him up one month and this morning resumed his place at the forge in the Pittsburg smith shop. Ed. Quinn, jr., also returned to his duties in that shop after a week's illness.

Another engine from the Buffalo division of the Wabash road is on route here to go into the shops for repairs. There are already two engines in the shops from that division. It is expected that there will be from one to three engines from that part of the line here all the time.

S. R. Callaway, president of the New York Central, has approved the construction of a three story brick clubhouse, 40x90, at the foot of West Seventy-second street, New York. The building will be erected by the railroad company for the Young Men's Christian Association of railroad employes, and will cost $25,000.

Facts Plainly Stated

Convince Thinking People.

When a man jumps up and down and yells at you until he is black in the face, in an effort to convince you of something, you are not convinced, simply because you know that if his statements have truth back of them, all the spectacular business is uncalled for. That is the reason Sam, Pete & Max always confine their advertising to the simple statement of facts as they exist. People who want clothing properly made, in best styles and at prices which leave no question of doubt in their minds as to the values they are getting, are coming to Sam, Pete & Max's in larger numbers every day. We do not insult your intelligence by advertising goods at half their worth, but better goods, for the money, than we offer have not yet been produced. In men's, boys' and children's clothing we show the largest stock in this section. Compare our goods with anybody's for proof of value.

IT TAKES COURAGE.

"A great deal of talent is lost to the world," said Sydney Smith, "for the want of a little courage." If a man would accomplish anything in this world, if he would make his mark on his age, he must not be afraid of assuming responsibility. Of course, it requires courage to take chances of failure, to be subjected to the risk of criticism for an unpopular cause, to expose oneself to the shafts of everybody's ridicule; but the man who is not true to himself, who cannot carry out the sealed orders placed in his hands at his birth, regardless of the world's "yes" or "no," of its approval or disapproval; the man who has not courage to trace the pattern of his destiny, which no other soul knows but his own, can never rise to the true dignity of manhood, or attain success.

It takes courage for a young man or woman to stand firmly erect while others are bowing and fawning for praise and power. It takes courage to wear threadbare clothes while your companions dress in broadcloth and silks. It takes courage to remain in honest poverty when others grow rich by fraud. It takes courage to say "no" squarely when those around you say "yes." It takes courage to do your duty in silence and obscurity although others prosper and grow famous while neglecting sacred obligations.

It takes courage and pluck to be laughed at, scoffed, ridiculed, derided, misjudged,—to stand alone with all the world against you. It takes courage to practice rigid economy while those about you squander their earnings, but "They are slaves who dare not be in the right with two or three!" It takes courage to refuse to follow custom when it is injurious to health and morals. To espouse an unpopular cause often requires more courage than to lead a charge in battle. It takes courage to be true to yourself while others about you would rather strangle their individuality than be tabooed by Mrs. Grundy. But remember that all things serve a brave soul, and the world makes way for the man who boldly presses on.

FOR MEMORIAL DAY.

The different committees in charge of the memorial day program are getting down to the work of arranging for the celebration of that day. The finance committee will commence tomorrow to solicit funds to defray the expenses and hope that the citizens will show their patriotism and co-operate with them to make this year's celebration a success. It is hoped that the artillery and infantry companies shall have organized by that time as it will add greatly to the success of the program. The principal address of the day will be made by Congressman Robinson and Rev. Sherman Powell will also speak.

Robert B. Wheeler, of the Hoosier Manufacturing company, left Sunday afternoon over the Nickel Plate for New York. He will sail from that city Wednesday on the steamer St. Louis for England.
